No Escape Nury Turkel, 2022-05-10 Winner of the Moore Prize on Human Rights Literature A powerful memoir by Nury Turkel that lays bare China's repression of the Uyghur people Turkel is cofounder and board chair of the Uyghur Human Rights Project and a commissioner for the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom In recent years the People's Republic of China has rounded up as many as three million Uyghurs placing them in what it calls reeducation camps facilities most of the world identifies as concentration camps There the genocide and enslavement of the Uyghur people are ongoing The tactics employed are reminiscent of the Cultural Revolution but the results are far more insidious because of the technology used most of it stolen from Silicon Valley In the words of Turkel Communist China has created an open prison like environment through the most intrusive surveillance state that the world has ever known while committing genocide and enslaving the Uyghurs on the world s watch As a human rights attorney and Uyghur activist who now serves on the US Commission on International Religious Freedom Turkel tells his personal story to help explain the urgency and scope of the Uyghur crisis Born in 1970 in a reeducation camp he was lucky enough to survive and eventually make his way to the US where he became the first Uyghur to receive an American law degree Since then he has worked as a prominent lawyer activist and spokesperson for his people and advocated strong policy responses from the liberal democracies to address atrocity crimes against his people The Uyghur crisis is turning into the greatest human rights crisis of the twenty first century a systematic cleansing of an entire race of people in the millions Part Anne Frank and Hannah Arendt No Escape shares Turkel s personal story while drawing back the curtain on the historically unprecedented and increasing threat from China No Escape John J. DiIulio, John J. DiIulio (Jr.), 1991-02-06 A realistic report on how to handle a tough public policy problem from which there is no escape Drawing on interviews with those on the front lines the author offers practical and even hopeful advice about how to make prisons safer more civilized and more cost effective No Escape Paul Passavant, 2003-10 No Escape proves that liberal government and nationalism can mutually reinforce each other taking as its example a preeminent and seemingly universal liberal legal right freedom of speech and illustrating how it can function in a way that actually reproduces nationally exclusive conditions of power
