Transnationalism Transcending Cultural Exchanges
 Transnationalism is a concept that focuses on the ways in which cultural practices, ideas, and information move across national boundaries, often facilitated by technology and globalization. It challenges the idea of culture as being strictly tied to a specific geographic location. Key aspects include:
 - Cultural Hybridity: The blending of different cultural elements to create new, unique expressions.
 - Diaspora Studies: Examining the experiences of communities that have migrated from one country to another, maintaining ties to their homeland while adapting to the new culture.
 - Globalization's Impact: The role of international trade, communication, and technology in facilitating cross-cultural interactions and the spread of ideas.
