from Less Than Zero and The Secret History woke up in a novel by Philip K Dick they'd get along famously with the precocious students of Stansbury Dustin Thomason bestselling author of The Rule of Four A thriller set in the future at an ultra elite prep school that asks what is the price of perfection In the year 2036 the world's best boarding school is the Stansbury School The students better known as specimens are screened at a young age and then given twelve years of the finest education and developmental drug regiment available Stansbury graduates physically and mentally are in a class all by themselves Four out of five go on to Harvard Yale or Princeton twenty out of the top thirty Forbes 500 companies have Stansbury CEOs eight graduates have become U.S. Senators and two sit on the Supreme Court But when a string of alumni are murdered school officials looking to avoid a public relations disaster decide to keep the police in the dark They discreetly ask the school's Valedictorian to solve the mystery but he discovers that the most obvious culprit the school's resident chemically imbalanced delinquent and the Valedictorian's nemesis is being framed Together the two unlikely allies uncover a massive conspiracy that reaches to the highest levels of the Stansbury administration and the United States government A riveting thriller about America's obsession with genius and the potential of youth Dave Kalstein's Prodigy is not only a chilling vision of the very near future it's an authentic coming of age story for the 21st Century Literary Fantasy in Contemporary Chinese Diasporic Women's Literature Fang Tang, 2019-12-03 This book explores the use of literary fantasy in the construction of identity and home in contemporary diasporic Chinese women's literature It argues that the use of fantasy acts as a way of undermining the power of patriarchy and unsettling fixed notions of home The idea of home explored in this book relates to complicated struggles to gain a sense of belonging as experienced by marginalized subjects in constructing their diasporic identities which can best be understood as unstable shifting and shaped by historical conditions and power relations Fantasy is seen to operate in the corpus of this book as a literary mode as defined by Rosemary Jackson Literary fantasy offers a way to rework ancient myths fairy tales ghost stories and legends it also subverts conventional narratives and challenges the power of patriarchy and other dominant ideologies Through a critical reading of four diasporic Chinese women authors namely Maxine Hong Kingston Adeline Yen Mah Ying Chen and Larissa Lai this book aims to offer critical insights into how their works re imagine a home through literary fantasy which leads beyond nationalist and Orientalist stereotypes and how essentialist conceptions of diasporic culture are challenged by global geopolitics and cultural interactions
