Dear Parents and Guardians,

I hope this letter finds you and your family well! My name is Mrs. Emily Carter, and I am thrilled to be your child's 5th-grade teacher for the 2050-2051 school year. I am excited about the learning journey ahead and look forward to partnering with you to ensure your child has a successful and enjoyable year in the classroom.

A Little About Me:

I have been teaching for 12 years, and my passion is creating a learning environment that fosters curiosity, creativity, and a love for knowledge. My goal is to help each student build confidence in their abilities and develop skills they'll carry with them for years to come. This year, we will focus on enhancing critical thinking, teamwork, and problem-solving through a variety of interactive projects and activities.

What to Expect This Year:

In 5th grade, we'll explore a range of subjects, including advanced science and technology, mathematics, creative writing, and global history. I encourage students to take risks in their learning and to embrace challenges as opportunities for growth. We'll be using immersive technology like virtual reality (VR) for our history lessons and hands-on robotics kits for STEM projects to bring concepts to life.

You will receive regular updates on our classroom activities and your child's progress through monthly newsletters and our classroom website.

Communication:

Your involvement is key to your child's success, and I am always open to hearing from you. I will send weekly updates via email, but you are also welcome to reach out to me directly. The best way to contact me is through my email: [Your Email], or you can send a message via the ClassHub app. I strive to respond within 24 hours on weekdays.

We will also hold parent-teacher conferences in October and February, but I am available for

We Do Not Want the Gates Closed between Us Justin Gage,2020-10-08 In the 1860s and 1870s the United States government forced most western Native Americans to settle on reservations These ever shrinking pieces of land were meant to relocate contain and separate these Native peoples isolating them from one another and from the white populations coursing through the plains We Do Not Want the Gates Closed Between Us tells the story of how Native Americans resisted this effort by building vast intertribal networks of communication threaded together by letter writing and off reservation visiting Faced with the consequences of U S colonialism the constraints population loss and destitution Native Americans far from passively accepting their fate mobilized to control their own sources of information spread and reinforce ideas and collectively discuss and mount resistance against onerous government policies Justin Gage traces these efforts drawing on extensive new evidence including more than one hundred letters written by nineteenth century Native Americans His work shows how Lakotas Cheyennes Utes Shoshones Kiowas and dozens of other western tribal nations shrewdly used the U S government s repressive education system and mechanisms of American settler colonialism notably the railroads and the Postal Service to achieve their own ends Thus Natives used literacy a primary tool of assimilation for U S policymakers to decolonize their lives much earlier than historians have noted Whereas previous histories have assumed that the Ghost Dance itself was responsible for the creation of brand new networks among western tribes this book suggests that the intertribal networks formed in the 1870s and 1880s actually facilitated the rapid dissemination of the Ghost Dance in 1889 and 1890 Documenting the evolution and operation of intertribal networking Gage demonstrates its effectiveness and recognizes for the first time how through Native activism long distance intercultural communication persisted in the colonized American West have not followed a modern engagement model in the way they approach partnership with the family and still espouse approaches that are school centric and outdated in their orientation Pathways to Partnership helps move leaders from talking to towards learning with parents Using case studies and the voices of parents and teachers to bring the content to life Sandra provides strategies for school leaders and teachers to use to establish contemporary partnerships with families ones that reflect current thinking that leads schools into authentic collaboration with their most important partners Research bulletin ,1925
