The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Policy Linda Miller, Claire Cameron, Carmen Dalli, Nancy Barbour, 2017-10-02

Recent authoritative evidence suggests that an estimated 200 million children under five fail to achieve their developmental potential due to factors including poor health and nutrition and the lack of stable high quality care A significant number of the world s children today lack the basic rights to health development and protection In light of such statistics early childhood services for young children have expanded around the world The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Policy draws critical attention to policy in Early Childhood Education and Care ECEC its relationship to service provision and its impact on the lives of children and families The perspectives of leading academics and researchers from Europe North America South America Africa Australasia and Asia have been arranged around five key themes Part 1 The Relationship Between Research Policy And Practice Country Case Studies Part 2 Equitable Early Childhood Services Intervention to Improve Children s Life Chances Part 3 Extending Practice The Role of Early Childhood Services In Family Support Part 4 Participation Rights and Diversity Part 5 Future Directions for Early Childhood Policy This handbook is essential reading for practitioners stakeholders and others committed to working within early years services to achieve an awareness of policy and its implications for services and practice Social Work and Climate Justice Devendraraj Madhanagopal,Bala Raju Nikku,2022-10-28 This book argues that climate justice is an urgent and defining global challenge with long term implications for poverty reduction livelihoods community well being and sustainable development It provides a thorough overview of both fundamental and new directions of knowledge and policy directions in this less debated area within environmental social work The chapters of this book offer both global and cross country perspectives via case studies from India Nepal Ukraine South Africa and the USA providing greater understanding evidence and strategies to achieve the resilience of vulnerable communities based on climate justice principles It will be required reading for all scholars students and social work professionals as well as those working in sustainability and community development Pretoria Student Law Review 2020-14-2 Simon Motshweni,2020-01-01 About the publication Honoured to present to you the reader the 2020 edition of the Pretoria Student Law Review PSLR an annual publication which is the pride of the best law faculty in Africa according to the Times Higher Education World University Rankings The University of Pretoria s Law Faculty ranks in the top 100 law faculties in the world a feat unequalled in Africa The PSLR is a student driven law review that creates an interactive forum for students academics and legal professionals to discuss topical legal matters that challenge the status quo At the beginning of this year lay the fantasy of newness presenting an opportunity to do great things But as I reflect on the journey leading to this publication I understand that the 2020 edition of the PSLR had an engine that ran on hope faith dedication perseverance commitment and hard work Our predecessors had a vision to create a boldly outlined legacy for the PSLR they spearheaded the setting up of a system that would last the lifespan of the PSLR Today some 13 years after the first edition of the PSLR South Africa the continent and the world at large are on the cusp of a new era socially economically and politically When my journey as Editor in Chief commenced I imagined the PSLR as a ship whose captain was myself Customarily it is easy to be a captain of a ship in calm seas but unlike most of my predecessors I have had to be the captain of a ship through the heftiest of storms The world was not truly prepared to face challenges presented by the Covid 19 let alone the PSLR In the wake of the 4IR and this new age of technology sailing this ship to success was still a heavy task to

Why Urban-Rural Under-Developed Communities Will Never Develop in South Africa Dudu Sokhela, 2013-11 At the heart of community development in under developed communities ghettos and slums is society's need to deal decisively with poverty want and need South African author Dudu Sokhela has compacted cutting edge techniques and strategies that can ensure sustainable urban rural community development based on the person centered community development approach Drawing from extensive knowledge and experience of grass roots progressive social change acquired at various nonprofit organizations she presents a solid point of entry into the indigent community that is often characterized by poverty and inequalities The book's information is presented right from the time the indigent community is entered This allows readers to learn the values and beliefs that make up the community as well as the delicate process of consultation community participation and the hindrances hampering development that are coupled with the prevalent inexperience and promotion of dependency by service providers. Profound inequalities and favoritism exist in the way resources are funded and distributed by those in power. There is also a lack of compliance in coordinating community programs and how the community can proceed in maintaining development once it has been started. Why Urban Rural Under Developed Communities Will Never Develop in South Africa is a must read for those in the helping professions tasked with turning the tide of poverty in these communities in South Africa like the Mooiplaas Informal Settlement in Centurion. This book can help bring to fruition new government strategies to regulate service providers funded by private organizations and also aid those that promote dependency in such communities.
