The Neighborhood in the Internet John M. Carroll, 2014-07-30 Today community seems to be everywhere At home at work and online the vague but comforting idea of the community pervades every area of life But have we lost the ability truly to understand what it means The Neighborhood in the Internet investigates social and civic effects of community networks on local community and how community network designs are appropriated and extended by community members Carroll uses his conceptual model of community to re-examine the Blacksburg Electronic Village the first Web-based community network applying it to attempts to sustain and enrich contemporary communities through information technology The book provides an analysis of the role of community in contemporary paradigms for work and other activity mediated by the Internet It brings to the fore a series of design experiments investigating new approaches to community networking and addresses the future trajectory and importance of community networks This book will be of interest to students of sociology community psychology human computer interaction information science and computer supported collaborative work

New Voices in Iranian Archaeology Karim Alizadeh, Megan Cifarelli, 2025-02-28 In championing the work of local scholars especially female this volume begins to fill a politically imposed lacuna in the English language reporting of high quality research in one of the most formative regions for the development of human civilization This volume highlights the excellent wide-ranging work of a diverse collection of Iranian archaeologists the new voices in Iranian archaeology Archaeology in Iran has developed in lockstep with the discipline of archaeology itself in part due to the colonial endeavors that provided impetus for Europeans to travel to distant lands and extract antiquities and other commodities But centuries before western archaeologists broke ground on excavations in the lands that would in 1935 be called Iran a deep and meaningful engagement with and reverence for the past was a thread running through Iranian culture since antiquity For millennia the residents and rulers of ancient Iranian lands have admired interacted with inscribed invented stories about and imitated the visible often ruined monuments of their ancestors that dotted the landscape Following numerous interruptions in the twentieth century occasioned by revolution war and the geopolitical climate Iranian archaeology has experienced a resurgence and these papers offer case studies on the archaeological and scientific sophistication of the work currently being done in Iran by Iranian archaeologists As a collection these papers show the chronological and geographical breadth of archaeology in Iran with papers analyzing the earliest evidence for human object interaction in the Paleolithic era the bustling medieval cities and their hinterlands and many stages in between The case studies deliberately highlight archaeological work across the entirety of the vast and varied geography of Iran from the fertile plains of Fars in the southwest to the rugged Zagros Mountains in the northwest from the peaks of the Elburz Mountains south of the Caspian Sea across the broad expanse of the Plateau to the eastern regions bordering Afghanistan and Turkmenistan This volume also features the work of many women in Iranian archaeology a testament to the expansion and evolution of the field and its participants in Iran In sum these papers demonstrate the commitment of a new generation of Iranian archeologists to their land s diverse and complex past Critical Han Studies Thomas Mullaney,James Patrick Leibold,Stéphane Gros,Eric Armand Vanden Bussche,2012-02-15 Constituting over ninety percent of China s population Han is not only the largest ethnonational group in that country but also one of the largest categories of human identity in world history In this pathbreaking volume a multidisciplinary group of scholars examine this ambiguous identity one that shares features with but cannot be subsumed under existing notions of ethnicity culture race nationality and civilization

Macphail,Chris Carey,Yijie Zhuang,2022-09-13 Practical and Theoretical Geoarchaeology Second Edition provides an invaluable and vastly updated overview of geoarchaeology and how it can be used effectively in the study of archaeological sites and contexts Taking a pragmatic and functional approach this book presents a fundamental broad based perspective of the essentials of modern geoarchaeology in order to demonstrate the breadth of the approaches and the depth of the problems that it can tackle the rapid advances made in the area in recent years but also gives the reader a firm grasp of conventional approaches covers traditional topics with the emphasis on landscapes as well as anthropogenic deposits and site formation processes and their investigation provides guidelines for the presentation of field and laboratory methods and the reporting of geoarchaeological results essential reading for archaeology undergraduate and graduate students practicing archaeologists and geoscientists who need to understand and apply geoarchaeological methodologies and help foster the dialog among diverse researchers investigating archaeological sites Practical and Theoretical Geoarchaeology Second Edition is an ideal resource for undergraduate and graduate students in archaeology and a great practical reference for practicing archaeologists and geoscientists who need to understand and apply geoarchaeological methodologies internationally The Lithic Assemblages of Qafzeh Cave Erella

Hovers,2009-06-09 This book presents the first comprehensive description of the lithic assemblages from Qafzeh Cave one of only two Middle Paleolithic sites in the Levant that has yielded multiple burials of early anatomically modern Homo sapiens AMHs The record from this region raises the question of possible long term temporal overlap between early AMHs and Neanderthals For this reason Qafzeh has long been one of the pivotal sites in debates on the origins of AMHs and in attempts to compare and contrast the two species adaptations and behavior Although the hominin fossils from the site were published years ago until now the associated archaeological assemblages were incompletely described often leading to conflicting interpretations This monograph includes a thorough technological analysis of the lithic assemblages incorporated in their geological and sedimentological contexts This description serves as a springboard for regional comparisons as well as a more general discussion about Middle Paleolithic behavior which is relevant to important and as yet unresolved questions on the origins of modern behavior patterns The volume includes a wide ranging and up to date bibliography that provides the middle range for discussing the ecological context and behavioral complexity of the Middle Paleolithic period and ends with some thought provoking conclusions about the dynamic human interactions that existed in the region during this time
