set of fraught even fractured negotiations between competing interests and impulses conducted in Paul's voice. The last chapter brings the letter into conversation with Nathaniel Hawthorne's short story The Minister's Black Veil in order to shift the terms of the critical discussion from what Paul meant to how Paul means in later cultural moments. Twomey introduces students to the way 2 Corinthians offers a fascinating but fragmentary glimpse into Paul's continuing ties with the Corinthian community. At the same time Twomey shows how the letter is the site of many new critical challenges to traditional readings of Paul and early Christianity. In contrast to 1 Corinthians this 2 Corinthians largely eschews the debates and discussions the interests and concerns of Paul's correspondents. Instead we find Paul engaged in a multi-pronged defence of his ministry in and beyond Corinth. Over the course of thirteen chapters he runs the gamut of the emotions rhetorically from tears to joy to biting anger while struggling to keep his relationship with some say his control over the community intact.
