Neighborhood Watch Shawn E. Fields, 2022-06-09 Although racism has plagued the American justice system since the nation's colonial beginnings private White Americans are taking matters into their own hands From racist 911 calls and hoaxes to grassroots voter suppression and vigilante self defense concerted efforts are made every day by private citizens to exclude Black Americans from schools neighborhoods and positions of power Neighborhood Watch examines the specific ways people police America's color line to protect White spaces The book charts how these actions too often result in harassment arrest injury or death yet typically go unchecked Instead these actions are promoted and encouraged by legislatures looking to expand racially discriminatory laws a police system designed to respond with force to any frivolous report of Black mischief and a Supreme Court that has abdicated its role in rejecting police abuse To combat these realities Neighborhood Watch offers preliminary recommendations for reform including changes to the maximum policing state increased accountability for civilians who abuse emergency response systems and proposals to demilitarize the color line

Emergency Vehicle Safety Initiative, 2004 From Book's Introduction As traffic volume increases and the highway and interstate system becomes more complex emergency responders face a growing risk to their personal safety while managing and working at highway incidents The purpose of this report is to identify practices that have the potential to decrease that risk as well as to reduce the number of injuries and deaths that occur while responding to and returning from incidents
