Sa Army Sndf Application For 2016

Jocelyn Alexander,JoAnn
McGregor,Blessing-Miles Tendi

Sa Army Sndf Application For 2016:

South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Antonio Garcia, 2018-08-17 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIBs objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges

Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd, Petrus C. Bester, Justin van der Merwe, 2020-05-13 Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology is a well timed extremely thought provoking imperative particular to the African context and deals with a highly contemporary issue within the people management and the management studies fields specifically in the military field and context This is specifically of importance as military psychology is a behavioural science that combines theory and practical application Prof Karel Stanz University of Pretoria

The Routledge International Handbook of Military Psychology and Mental Health Updesh Kumar, 2019-12-11 Military psychology has become one of the world s fastest growing disciplines with ever emerging new applications of research and development The Routledge International Handbook of Military Psychology and Mental Health is a compendium of chapters by internationally renowned scholars in the field bringing forth the state of the art in the theory practice and future prospects of military psychology This uniquely interdisciplinary volume deliberates upon the current issues and applications of military psychology not only within the military organization and the discipline of psychology but also in the larger context of its role of building a better world Split into three parts dedicated to specific themes the first part of the book Military Psychology The Roots and the Journey provides an overview of the evolution of the discipline over the years delving into concepts as varied as culture and cognition in the military a perspective on the role of military psychology in future warfare and ethical issues The second part Soldiering Deployment and Beyond considers the complexities involved in soldiering in view of the changing nature of warfare generating a focal discourse on various aspects of military leadership soldier resilience and post traumatic growth in the face of extreme situations bravery and character strengths and transitioning to civilian life In the final section Making a Choice Mental Health Issues and Prospects in the Military the contributors focus on the challenges and practices involved in maintaining the mental health of the soldier covering issues ranging from stress mental health and well being through to suicide risk and its prevention intervention and management strategies moral injury and post traumatic stress disorder Incorporating enlightening contributions of eminent scholars from around the world the volume is a comprehensive repository of current perspectives and future directions in the domain of military psychology It will prove a valuable resource for mental health practitioners military leaders policy makers and academics and students across a range of disciplines

Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia, Jacob Udo-Udo
 Jacob, 2025-03-14 The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security conflict violence and peace on the African continent It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on going debates on security issues Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes

Contemporary Military Geosciences in South Africa Jacques Bezuidenhout, Hennie Smit, 2019-03-20 Contemporary Military Geosciences in South Africa presents the reader with chapters celebrating the scope reach and impact of themes researched by military geoscientists The first topics under investigation ranges from battlefield archaeology and battlefield tourism to military environmental management and the development of a unique South African spatial decision support system for military integrated environmental management This is followed by an in depth look at contemporary maritime factors at play in South Africa The book is concluded by an analysis of the issues surrounding military mobility software and terrain negotiability as well as a comprehensive examination of how geographic factors influence the distribution of natural radionuclides in a military area

Handbook of the Sociology of the Military Giuseppe

Caforio, Marina Nuciari, 2018-05-19 This new edition of the volume is presented on the wave of the success which had its first edition 2003 It is entirely updated to the current situation of the disciplines covered and expanded with particular regard to the new missions that have become the main challenge for the armed forces in these first decades of the new millennium with new insights to technological development toward so called cyborg warriors new forms of leadership and changes in soldier's identity and organisational culture It is compiled of documents coming from various researchers at universities around the world as well as military officers devoted to the sector of study Covered in this volume is a historical excursus of studies prior to contemporary research interpretive models and theoretical approaches developed specifically for this topic civic military relations including issues surrounding democratic control of the armed forces military culture professional training conditions and problems of minorities in the armed forces an examination of the structural change within the military over the years including new duties and functions following the Cold War Annual Report Armaments Corporation of South Africa Ltd, 2016

Cross Border Security in the Southern African Region Inocent Moyo, 2024-07-29 This book provides a sophisticated analysis of cross border challenges and problems in the southern African region It advances explanations that transcend the state centric narrative that has nationalised cross border security It provides insights from non state actors such as informal cross border traders ICBTs informal cross border transporters undocumented migrants and cross border communities It argues that security needs to be understood beyond a state centric paradigm by focusing on the political economic environmental and societal threats at macro meso and micro levels The book suggests that at the core of cross border security challenges in the Southern African region is a post colonial governmentality This drives the nationalisation of cross border security as though it is the only security leading to nation states in turn depoliticising and invisibilising the security and livelihoods of ordinary people even when nation states claim to be protecting the same The book will be a useful resource for students scholars and researchers of African Studies Border Studies Human Geography Migration Studies Development Studies International Studies International Relations Political Science and Security Studies Annual Report South Africa. Department of Defence, 2016

Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements Jocelyn Alexander, JoAnn McGregor, Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2020-05-21 Transnational Histories of Southern Africa's Liberation Movements offers new perspectives on southern Africa's wars of national liberation drawing on extensive oral historical and archival research Assuming neither the primacy of nationalist loyalties as they exist today nor any single path to liberation the book unpicks any notion of a straightforward imposition of Cold War ideologies or strategic interests on liberation wars This approach adds new dimensions to the rich literatures on the Global Cold War and on solidarity movements The contributors trace the ways that ideas and practices were made adopted and circulated through time and space through a focus on African soldiers politicians and diplomats The book also asks what motivated the men and women who crossed borders to join liberation movements how Cold War influences were acted upon interpreted and used and why certain moments venues and relations took on exaggerated importance The connections among liberation movements between them and their hosts and across an extraordinarily diverse set of external actors reveal surprising exchanges and lasting legacies that have too often been obscured by the assertion of monolithic national histories Tracing an extraordinarily diverse set of interactions and exchanges Transnational Histories of Southern Africa s Liberation Movements will be of great interest to scholars of Southern Africa Transnational History the Cold War and African Politics The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies

Reflections on the Complexities of the Covid-19 Pandemic Shadrack B. Ramokgadi,Mbekezeli C. Mkhize,2022-12-31 This book offers an original and timeous snapshot of contemporary lines of argument from various authors in the Global South on the Covid 19 pandemic as a complex emergency at the height of the pandemic At the time of writing there were various levels of uncertainties from different countries citizens the public and private sectors industries and economies who were in disarray The book traces the origins of the Covid 19 pandemic in the province of Wuhan in China the challenges and the responses from a multiplicity of countries particularly from the Global South Of particular importance the book notes that vaccine uncertainty limiting the spread of the virus and loss of life and employment were some of the major challenges that these governments and citizens were confronted with Also the sizes of various economies lead to various challenges that the abovementioned governments shouldered The contributors shed light on various aspects related to the Covid 19 pandemic from various countries in the Global South and include but were not limited to securitised lockdowns the use of militaries and complete closures of national and sometimes fragile economies as well as overburdened health systems These are just some dire consequences of Covid 19 on the public and private sector industries and economy The book emphasises that despite myriad challenges reported there are various lessons that can be learnt in terms of how the countries responded to the pandemic and in terms of how future pandemics can be handled Finally this is an interesting piece of work wherein contributors as a collective seek to shed light with regards to the unique perspectives from the Global South and at the same time give some guidance related to their specific areas of focus

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31

This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization

Analysis, Design and Construction of Foundations Yung Ming Cheng, Chi Wai Law, Leilei

Liu, 2021-02-21 Analysis Design and Construction of Foundations outlines methods for analysis and design of the construction of shallow and deep foundations with particular reference to case studies in Hong Kong and China as well as a discussion of the methods used in other countries It introduces the main approaches used by geotechnical and structural engineers and the precautions required for planning design and construction of foundation structures Some computational methods and computer programmes are reviewed to provide tools for performing a more realistic analysis of foundation systems The authors examine in depth the methods used for constructing shallow foundations deep foundations excavation and lateral support systems slope stability analysis and construction and ground monitoring for proper site management Some new and innovative foundation construction methods are also introduced It is illustrated with case studies of failures and defects from actual construction projects Some advanced and modern theories are also covered in this book This book is more targeted towards the understanding of the basic behavior and the actual construction of many geotechnical works and this book is not dedicated to any design code or specification though Euro codes and Hong Kong code are also used in this book for illustration It is ideal for consulting geotechnical engineers undergraduate and postgraduate students

Kanene Sharon

Sibanda,2025-02-15 The Black SANDF soldiers experiences are unique shaped by the armed struggle long and repeated deployments constant threats and repeated exposure to the horrors of battle Traumatized Black SANDF members journeys reveal the profound impacts of combat trauma often echoing the symptoms of CPTSD characterised by an ongoing sense of danger and a fractured sense of self The interpretation of these soldiers lived realities interconnects creating an intricate pattern of grief and resilience stitched into the camouflage fabric of their military and psychological reality In the crucible of their pain they find solace in shared silence their sacred cries resounding through history s corridors We witness their raw truths as we navigate the shadows of their combat experiences The legacy of fallen and surviving soldiers etched in blood and sacrifice honours the unyielding spirit of the human soul dedicated to the nation s greater good These lived stories privilege us with an honoured glimpse into the psyche of serving force members haunted by our past and continuous military engagements These soldiers stories forge a collective narrative of resilience highlighting their enduring spirit in the face of trauma and adversity within an integrated SANDF Kanene armed with these soldiers self insights emerges as the guiding light navigating through the dark psychological recesses of lived trauma to bring hope and healing to those who have served and continue to serve their country
