Welfare is about the many points of contact between voluntary welfare and government social services and the complex pattern woven by these different threads The country s welfare history is shaped by its colonial past with the predominantly British influences transmitted by an immigrant society in the nineteenth century by its Maori population with a strong communal ethos by the shaping forces of the welfare state by two world wars and economic depression and by both free market policies and rapid social change in recent years In tracing the interdependence of state and voluntary provision of welfare from 1840 to 2005 Margaret Tennant offers new perspectives on New Zealand social history This is a rigorous analysis but it is also a history illuminated by people The text is illustrated with stories about the people who were moved to save to reform to care to support and the people who needed that essential sustenance From the nun who sees a distraught woman about to throw her child into the sea and sets out to care for foundlings to city missionaries community minded public servants businessmen philanthropists and the entrepreneurial organisers of floral fetes and telethons these accounts tell us much about the history of welfare in all its interconnections Reaching the Marginalized ,2010-01-01 Children at risk of marginalization in education are found in all societies At first glance The lives of these children may appear poles apart The daily experiences of slum dwellers in Kenya ethnic minority children in Viet Nam and a Roma child in Hungary are very different What they have in common are missed opportunities to develop their potential realize their hopes and build a better future through education A decade has passed since world leaders adopted the Education for All goals While progress has been made millions of children are still missing out on their right to education Reaching the marginalized identifies some of the root causes of disadvantage both within education and beyond and provides examples of targeted policies and practices that successfully combat exclusion Set against the backdrop of the global economic crisis The Report calls for a renewed financing commitment by aid donors and recipient governments alike to meet the Education for All goals by 2015 This is the eighth edition of the annual EFA Global Monitoring Report The Report includes statistical indicators on all levels of education in more than 200 countries and territories The New Zealand Official Year-book ,1928 Index of NLM Serial Titles National Library of Medicine (U.S.), A keyword listing of serial titles currently received by the National Library of Medicine

Abolishing the Military Griffin Leonard,Joseph Llewellyn,Richard Jackson,2023-11-01 In an era of escalating global conflicts this book challenges the conventional belief that nation states need military forces to ensure their security and contribute to international peace As academic discourse on non violent methods of national defence and global peace promotion gains momentum there is growing evidence supporting the viability of such policy approaches Far from being a matter of solely academic concern this debate parallels increasing public awareness that militaries are struggling to deal effectively with and may actually exacerbate contemporary threats and challenges such as terrorism climate change and inequality Abolishing the Military Arguments and Alternatives critically examines several widely held assumptions regarding the necessity of a military force for Aotearoa New Zealand In doing so it demonstrates that these assumptions often rest on
