 geospatial technology so recent that its applications have received only sporadic coverage in remote sensing literature Remote Sensing of Impervious Surfaces is the first to focus entirely on this developing field It provides detailed coverage of mapping data extraction Kursk Steven H. Newton,2009-02-18 The battle of Kursk fought in the summer of 1943 involved six thousand German and Soviet armored vehicles making it the biggest tank battle of all time and possibly the largest battle of any kind Students of military history have long recognized the importance of Kursk also known as Operation Citadel and there have been several serious studies of the battle Yet the German view of the battle has been largely ignored After the war U S Army Intelligence officers gathered German commanders post war reports of the battle Due in part to poor translations done after the war these important documents have been overlooked by World War II historians Steven H Newton has collected translated and edited these accounts including reports made by the Chiefs of Staff of Army Group South and the Fourth Panzer Army and by the Army Group Center Operations Officer As a result a new and unprecedented picture of German strategy and operations is made available The translated staff reports are supplemented by Newton s commentary
