Improving Early Literacy Outcomes Nic Spaull, John Comings, 2019-05-15 Learning to read and write for meaning and pleasure are arguably the two most important competences that children acquire in primary school Yet in 2019 more than one half of children worldwide do not reach this first rung on the literacy ladder Improving Early Literacy Outcomes aims to address this head on by foregrounding the work of more than 40 researchers most of them living in and working on developing countries Their contributions illuminate magnify and discover anew the importance of improving early reading through precise alignment of curriculum teaching and assessment and with a special focus on some of the most under studied countries in the world e.g. Burkina Faso Niger and Senegal Through probing analyses of research policy and practice the book highlights the common experiences of high aspirations repeatedly confronting harsh realities Sixteen interconnected chapters cast an ever vigilant and deflationary eye on the temptation to take an unrealistic approach to early literacy and also caution against lumping all languages contexts and policy challenges into a single heap This book provides an indispensable guide to policymakers practitioners educators and academics working towards the realisation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Improving the teaching learning and assessment of early grade literacy is key not only to expanding the quality access and equity of education but also to unlocking all the other SDGs and ultimately to driving development Official Verbatim Report of the Parliamentary Debates Zambia.
