Barbarism and Religion: Volume 5, Religion: The First Triumph J. G. A. Pocock, 2011-01-06 This fifth volume in John Pocock's acclaimed sequence on Barbarism and Religion turns to the controversy caused by Edward Gibbon's treatment of the early Christian church Examining this controversy in unprecedented depth Pocock challenges the assumption that Gibbon wrote with the intention of destroying belief in the Christian revelation and questions our understanding of the character of enlightenment Reconsidering the genesis inception and reception of these crucial chapters of Decline and Fall Pocock explores the response of Gibbon's critics affirming that his reputation as an unbeliever was established before his history of the Church had been written The magnitude of Barbarism and Religion is already apparent Religion The First Triumph will be read not just as a remarkable analysis of the making of Decline and Fall but also as a comment on the collision of belief and disbelief a subject as pertinent now as it was to Gibbon's eighteenth century readers The Revelations of St. Birgitta of Sweden Bridget Morris, 2008-10-07 St Birgitta of Sweden 1303-73 canonized 1391 was one of the most charismatic and influential visionaries of the later Middle Ages Altogether she received some seven hundred revelations dealing with subjects ranging from meditations on the human condition domestic affairs in Sweden and ecclesiastical matters in Rome to revelations in praise of the Incarnation and devotion to the Virgin Her Revelations collected and ordered by her confessors circulated widely throughout Europe and long after her death Many eminent individuals including Cardinal Juan Torquemada Jean Gerson and Martin Luther read and commented on her writings which influenced the spiritual lives of countless individuals Birgitta was also the founder of a new monastic order which still exists today She is the patron saint of Sweden and in 2000 was declared with Catherine of Siena and Edith Stein co patroness of Europe Birgitta

s Revelations present her as a commanding and dauntless visionary who develops a contemplative mysticism that is always interwoven with social engagement and a commitment to the salvation of the world The varied styles of her revelations are dominated by frequent juxtapositions of memorable images and allegories that illustrate her fierce and fertile imagination her sharp powers of observation and understanding and her passionate and receptive storytelling powers This is the second of four volumes and it contains Book IV and Book V of the Revelations Book IV includes some of Birgitta s most influential visions with topics ranging from the Avignon papacy and purgatory to the Hundred Years War Book V the Liber Quaestionum Book of Questions takes the form of a learned dialogue between Christ and a monk standing on a ladder fixed between heaven and earth The argument centers on the way in which God s providence is constantly misunderstood and rejected by self centered human beings The translation is based on the recently completed critical edition of the Latin text and promises to be the standard English translation of the Revelations for years to come he spent years gathering preaching notes and sermon outlines from the very best preachers of his day in the late 1800s and early 1900s and he did it covering every book of the Bible And it is amazingly comprehensive Exell approached his task by taking every verse in the Bible and seeking to discover how it has been preached in the past Though there is plenty of exegetical material here this is not primarily a commentary This series is for preachers teachers Bible students and anyone else looking for penetrating pastoral insights from some of the all time greats of the faith The London catalogue of books ... containing the books published in London ... since the year 1800 to October 1822 [compiled by W.
