

A detailed photograph of a custom-built electronic circuit board, likely a power supply or amplifier. The board is populated with numerous components including large electrolytic capacitors, integrated circuits, resistors, and a transformer. A prominent white label in the center reads "STANLEY ELECTRONICS". The board is yellow and features various traces and components mounted on it. The components are arranged in a somewhat organized manner, with some larger components like capacitors and the transformer taking up significant space. The board is set against a dark background.
