Saps Security Guard With Black Uniform:

Unequal Protection, 2001 Abuse by Farm Owners Police in Africa Jan Beek, Mirco Göpfert, Olly Owen, Johnny Steinberg, 2017-08-15 Often overlooked by journalists and scholars the police forces of the African continents are a significant and little studied phenomenon This book seeks to redress that lacuna The studies span the continent from South Africa to Sierra Leone keeping a strong ethnographic focus on police officers and their work Police Work and Identity Andrew Faull, 2017-09-07 This is a book about the men and women who police contemporary South Africa Drawing on rich original ethnographical data it considers how officers make sense of their jobs and how they find meaning in their duties It demonstrates that the dynamics that lead to police abuses and scandals in transitional and neo liberalising regimes such as South Africa can be traced to the day to day experiences and ambitions of the average police officer It is about the stories they tell themselves about themselves and their social worlds and how these shape the order they produce through their work By focusing on police officers this book positions the individual in primacy over the organisation asking what policing looks like when motivated by the pursuit of ontological security in precarious contexts It acknowledges but downplays the importance of police culture in determining officers attitudes and behaviour and reminds readers that most officers lives are entangled in and shaped by a range of social political and cultural forces It suggests that a job in the South African Police Service SAPS is primarily just that a job Most officers join the organisation after other dreams have slipped beyond reach their presence in the Service being almost accidental But once employed they re write their self narratives and enact carefully choreographed performances to ease managerial and public pressure and to rationalize their coercive practices In an era where evidence and what works reigns supreme and where cop culture is often deemed a primary socializing force this book emphasises how officers personal histories ambitions and vulnerabilities remain central to how policing unfolds on the street Twilight Policing Tessa G. Diphoorn, 2015-10-20 South Africa boasts the largest private security sector in the entire world reflecting deep anxieties about violence security and governance Twilight Policing is an ethnographic study of the daily policing practices of armed response officers a specific type of private security officer and their interactions with citizens and the state police in Durban South Africa This book shows how their policing practices simultaneously undermine and support the state resulting in actions that are neither public nor private but something in between something twilight Their performances of security are also punitive disciplinary and exclusionary and they work to reinforce post apartheid racial and economic inequalities Ultimately Twilight Policing helps to illuminate how citizens survive volatile conditions and to whom they assign the authority to guide them in the process Kill Zone Kevin J. Anderson, Doug Beason, 2024-06-04 Power duo Kevin J Anderson and Doug Beason team up in Kill Zone a perilous disaster thriller for the modern age Deep within a mountain in Albuquerque New Mexico a Cold War era nuclear weapons storage facility is being used to covertly receive more than 100 000 tons of nuclear waste stored across the US Only Department of Energy employee Adonia and a few others including a war hero a senator and an environmental activist are allowed access to perform a high level security review of the facilities But Hydra Mountain was never meant to securely hold this much hazardous waste and it has the potential to explode taking with it all of Albuquerque and spreading radioactivity across the nation This disaster situation proves all too possible when a small plane crashes at a nearby military base setting off Hydra s lockdown and trapping Adonia and her team in the heart of the hazardous waste filled mountain Now the only direction for them to go is deeper into the mountain through the tear gas and into a secretive area no one was ever supposed to know about At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Partners in Crime? Mark Shaw, 1995 Servamus , 2004 Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerma, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations Country Reports on Human Rights Practices for 1987 United States. Department of State, 1988 Human Rights Report , 1998-07 Policing and Human Rights Julia Hornberger, 2011-10-21 Policing and Human Rights analyses the implementation of human rights standards tracing them from the nodal points of their production in Geneva through the board rooms of national police management and training facilities to the streets of downtown Johannesburg This book deals with how the unprecedented influence of human rights combined with the inability by police officers to live up to international standards has created a range of policing and human rights vernaculars hybrid discourses that have appropriated transmogrified and undercut human rights Understood as an attempt by police officers as much as by the police as a whole to recover a position from which to act and to judge these vernaculars reveal the compromised ways in which human rights are and are not implemented Tracing how in South Africa human rights have given rise to new forms of popular justice informal private policing and provisional security arrangements Policing and Human Rights delivers an important analysis of how the dissemination and implementation of human rights intersects with the post colonial and post transformation circumstances that characterise many countries in the South

Koevoet Steve Crump, 2023-01-19 Koevoet Afrikaans for Crowbar tells of the origination and deployment of the South West African Police's elite counter insurgency capability during the South African Border War of 1978-1989. Drawing upon previously unpublished sources and from interviews with a number of key personalities including former members of Koevoet, this volume is the first of two documents detailing the formation of Koevoet and its early operations up to 1984. Koevoet examines the background and context to the South West African conflict and details the early experiences of the South African Police in seeking to counter SWAPO PLAN activities. It outlines the tasking assigned to Colonel Hans Dreier of the South African Police to establish Ops K and to develop a counter insurgency unit as part of the South West African Police response to the developing conflict, a unit that was to become both respected and feared and is today considered as one of the most effective counter insurgency forces of modern times. Koevoet describes the recruitment of trackers from the local population, the integration of black and white Koevoet operators into a single entity, their training organization and deployment across the Operational Area. The author examines Koevoet tactics in the field, including all arms co-operation with the South African Defence Force and the South African Air Force, and the practice of turning captured SWAPO PLAN fighters and their employment across the Zulu teams. The design and evolution of the iconic Casspir and Wolf Mine Protected Vehicles (MPVs) is covered, as is their practical use on operations, alongside the development of other specialized weapons and equipment utilized by Koevoet. In documenting Koevoet operations in Kavnago, Kaokoland and Owamboland, Volume 1 of Koevoet seeks to examine SWAPOL COIN's effectiveness and to assess how the lessons learned between 1979-1984 shaped future Koevoet doctrine and thinking, to afford the reader a truly inclusive perspective on counter insurgency today, as police and armed forces globally move to a greater reliance on cutting edge digital technology, including artificial intelligence. Color profiles detail a range of Mine Protected Vehicles (MPVs) used by Koevoet, including the iconic Casspir and Wolf, along with SADF and SAAF helicopters used to support these operations. Uniforms and insignia of Koevoet are presented in specially commissioned full color artworks.
