Practice Management Association, Information Resources,2019-10-11 Global interest in indigenous studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact indigenous communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving Indigenous Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of indigenous peoples from around the world as well as how contemporary issues impact these indigenous communities on a local national and global scale Highlighting a range of topics such as local narratives intergenerational cultural transfer and ethnicity and identity this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields African Agrarian Systems Daniel Biebuyck,2018-08-16 Originally published in 1963 this volume surveys various aspects of the complex relations between rights in land social organization and economic interests in tropical Africa The papers in English and French but with summaries in the other language analyse case studies illustrating the various basic factors and problems connected with land in Tropical Africa Indigenous systems of tenure and their adaptation to commercial agriculture the balance between rights and obligations of groups and individuals and the authority and duties of chiefs and headmen are discussed in detail for many different areas Against this background important contributions are made towards the better understanding of problems raised by economic and political development population increase migration and scarcity of land Teacher in New Africa ,1972 Handbook of Research on Digital-Based Assessment and Innovative Practices in Education Keengwe, Jared,2022-05-06 Even though digital technologies are ubiquitous in education assessment methods continue to employ traditional assessments even though they are inadequate to provide information about a student s reasoning and conceptual understanding Digital based assessment models allow students to demonstrate higher order skills while integrating digital technologies as a powerful teaching tool Digital technologies can support inquiry based learning that is essential to developing a deep conceptual understanding of the content The Handbook of Research on Digital Based Assessment and Innovative Practices in Education identifies digital tools and applications for effective assessment of learning shares various models of digital based assessment in education and considers best pedagogical practices for assessment in education Covering a range of topics such as formative assessments design thinking virtual reality and equity this major reference work is crucial for educational technologists instructional designers policymakers administrators faculty researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students Football Fans, Rivalry and Cooperation Christian Brandt,Fabian Hertel,Sean Huddleston,2017-04-21 Football is undoubtedly the sport with the largest following in the world attracting billions of fans across the globe These fans play an integral part in determining the identity of the football club they support Many studies have focused on the intense rivalry between clubs their fans and the opposing identities they represent However little attention has been paid to examples of cooperation between rival fans This book is the first to explore antagonistic cooperation in football the idea that rival fans can work together despite their animosity With examples from Argentina Brazil Germany Mexico Croatia Poland Turkey Ukraine the UK the US and Zimbabwe this book brings together case studies on rival fans working together and explores how and why such cooperation takes place Showcasing original research from a team of international football scholars it sheds new light on the social and political complexities of contemporary football fan culture

Football Fans Rivalry and Cooperation is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in football studies the sociology of sport sport and politics or sport and social theory

Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe s colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo s book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe s education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country s education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia

Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008 The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007 These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa

The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its coteremporary manifestations The papers are divided into six parts Pre Colonial Identities Colonialism and Identity Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity Identity Based Conflicts Migration and Acculturation and Memory History and Identity The authors are scholars from Benin Botswana Cameroon the Democratic Republic of Congo Ethiopia Mali Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Zimbabwe Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies at Addis Ababa University Amongst his publication is A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855 1991 Calendar University of Zimbabwe,1994 Charles Mungoshi Maurice Taonezvi Vambe,Memory Chirere,2006 Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure,2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author s excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology Empowerment Through Language Zaline M.
