CONSTITUTION STUDY GUIDE

We the People

Article I

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, and seven Years a Citizen of the United States, who, when elected, shall not, when elected, have been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, who, when elected, shall not, when elected, have been seven Years a Citizen of the United States.

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including all bound Persons, (except Indians not taxed) three fifths of all other Persons.

The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress, and within every subsequent Term of Years, in such Manner as they may direct. The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand Persons, but each State shall have at least one Representative; and until such Enumeration, there shall be one Representative for every free Person, including all bound Persons, (except Indians not taxed) three fifths of all other Persons.
