Recircves De Femmes:

The Politics of Female Households: Ladies-in-waiting across Early Modern Europe ,2013-10-24 The Politics of Female Households is the first collection that seeks to integrate ladies in waiting into the master narrative of early modern court studies Presenting evidence and analysis of the multifarious ways in which women above stairs shaped the European courts of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries it argues for a re assessment of their political influence The cultural agency of ladies in waiting is viewed in the reflection of portraiture pamphlets and masques their political dealings and patronage are revealed through analysis of letters family networks career patterns gift exchange and household structures as well as their activities in the fields of intelligence gathering and espionage By concentrating on a previously neglected area of female agency this collection demonstrates clearly that the political climate of Europe was often shaped outside the male dominated institutions of government and administration Contributors include Helen Graham Matheson Hannah Leah Crumm Katrin Keller Vanessa de Cruz Birgit Houben Dries Raeymaekers Janet Ravenscroft Una McIlvenna Rosalind K Marshall Oliver Mallick Cynthia Fry Nadine Akkerman Sara J Wolfson Fabian Persson and Jeroen Duindam Women in the Lusophone World in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Period Darlene Abreu-Ferreira,Ivana Elbl,2007-11-20 The present collection echoes and contributes to a number of the issues defined by both the traditional and revisionist historiography The intent of this special issue of the Portuguese Studies Review was to highlight some of the new research on late medieval and early modern Portuguese women subjects typically situated outside of the academic mainstream and to complement the four major collections on the history of Portuguese women published since 1986 as well as the larger literature dealing with Spain The essays are organized into six general themes Female Characters in Late Medieval Chronicles Women and Power in the Late Middle Ages Habsburg Queens and Portugal Women and the Economy Attitudes Toward Women and Women and Religion The volume presents essays by Am lia P Hutchinson Jos Valente Jutta Sperling Ivana Elbl Susannah C Humble Ferreira F lix Labrador Arroyo Annemarie Jordan Almudena P rez de Tudela Am lia Pol nia Am ndio Jorge Morais Barros Darlene Abreu Ferreira Pedor Miguel Reboredo Marques Marcia Eliane Alves de Souza e Mello Jessiva V Roitman In s Amorim Elisbete de Jesus and C lia Rego and Haruko Nawata Ward with an Introduction by Darlene Abreu Ferreira and Ivana Elbl The volume also contains an Addendum on the Portuguese Estado Novo with studies by Sonny B Davis and Antonio Mu oz S nchez Writing in the Shadow Harry Stone,1996 Writers and publishers too refused to be silenced and many found lasting fame through clandestine books for instance the poet Jan Campert the Danish pastor Kaj Munk and Vercors author of Le Silence de la Mer which was later made into a classic film Courage skill and ingenuity were stretched to the full in the resistance to Nazi repression that found expression no matter how dangerously in the thousands of newspapers pamphlets books poems and songs that appeared in the dark days of occupation Early Modern Habsburg Women Anne J. Cruz,Maria Galli Stampino,2016-05-06 As the first comprehensive volume devoted entirely to women of both the Spanish and

Austrian Habsburg royal dynasties spanning the sixteenth and the seventeenth centuries this interdisciplinary collection illuminates their complex and often contradictory political functions and their interrelations across early modern national borders The essays in this volume investigate the lives of six Habsburg women who as queens consort and queen regent duchesses a vicereine and a nun left an indelible mark on the diplomatic and cultural map of early modern Europe Contributors examine the national and transnational impact of these notable women through their biographies and explore how they transferred their cultural religious and political traditions as the women moved from one court to another Early Modern Habsburg Women investigates the complex lives of Philip II's daughter the Infanta Catalina Micaela 1567 1597 her daughter Margherita of Savoy Vicereine of Portugal 1589 1655 and Maria Maddalena of Austria Grand Duchess of Florence 1589 1631 The second generation of Habsburg women that the volume addresses includes Philip IV's first wife Isabel of Borb n 1602 1644 who became a Habsburg by marriage Rudolph II's daughter Sor Ana Dorotea 1611 1694 the only Habsburg nun in the collection and Philip IV's second wife Mariana of Austria 1634 1696 queen regent and mother to the last Spanish Habsburg Through archival documents pictorial and historical accounts literature and correspondence as well as cultural artifacts such as paintings jewelry and garments this volume brings to light the impact of Habsburg women in the broader historical political and cultural contexts The essays fill a scholarly need by covering various phases of the lives of early modern royal women who often struggled to sustain their family loyalty while at the service of a foreign court even when protecting and preparing their heirs for rule a Daily Life in Spain in the Golden Age Marcelin Defourneaux, 1979 A book about life in Spain from the succession of Philip II 1556 to the death of Philip IV 1665 The author relies primarily upon careful use of literary works and travel accounts written during this golden age In addition to delightful descriptions and anecdotes he has woven into his text important political and economic developments He provides a general view of Spain stressing the importance of the Catholic faith and the emphasis upon personal honour before surveying life and society in urban and rural areas He then examines in some detail life in the Church university military and home public entertainment and the picaresque life Documents Council of Europe: Parliamentary Assembly, 2003-03-14 Women's World , 1986
