Response To Literature Outline:

Resources in Education, 1990 Serves as an index to Eric reports microform Researching Response to Literature and the Teaching of Literature Charles Raymond Cooper, 1985 This volume explores the theories and methodologies that help us to learn more about readers It presents a comprehensive review of the major research theories on response and the current techniques and methodologies for carrying out research Organized into three parts theories of response ways to study response and ways to study classroom instruction in literature it will be of interest to a variety of audiences including teachers of literature teacher training supervision curriculum and program evaluation psychometrics linguistics discourse theory computer science cognitive psychology and developmental psychology Interpreting Literature With Children Shelby A. Wolf, 2014-04-04 Clearly organized and beautifully written Interpreting Literature With Children is a remarkable book that stands on the edge of two textbook genres the survey of literature text and the literary criticism text Neither approach however says enough about how children respond to literature in everyday classroom situations That is the mission of this book It begins by providing a solid foundation in both approaches and then examines multiple ways of developing children's literary interpretation through talk through culture class and gender as well as through creative modes of expression including writing the visual arts and drama The result is a balanced resource for teachers who want to deepen their understanding of literature and literary engagement Because of its modest length and price and its ongoing focus on how to increase student engagement with literature either pre service or practicing teachers can use this text in children's literature language arts or literacy and language courses Handbook of Creativity John A. Glover, Royce R. Ronning, Cecil R. Reynolds, 2013-03-09 The motivation underlying our development of a handbook of creativity was different from what usually is described by editors of other such volumes Our sense that a handbook was needed sprang not from a deluge of highly erudite studies calling out for organization nor did it stem from a belief that the field had become so fully articulated that such a book was necessary to provide summation and reference Instead this handbook was conceptualized as an attempt to provide structure and organization for a field of study that from our perspective had come to be a large scale example of a degenerating research program see Brown Chapter 1 The handbook grew out of a series of discussions that spanned several years At the heart of most of our interactions was a profound unhappiness with the state of research on creativity Our consensus was that the number of good works published on creativity each year was small and growing smaller Further we could not point to a journal text or professional organization that was providing leadership for the field in shaping a scientifically sound framework for the development of research programs in creativity At the same time we were casting about for a means of honoring a dear friend E Paul Torrance Our decision was that we might best be able to honor Paul and influence research on creativity by developing a handbook designed to challenge traditional perspectives while offering research agendas based on contemporary psychological views Late-Life Homelessness Amanda

Grenier,2022-01-15 Around the world and across a range of contexts homelessness among older people is on the rise In spite of growing media attention and new academic research on the issue older people often remain unrecognized as a subpopulation in public policy programs and homeless strategies As such they occupy a paradoxical position of being hypervisible while remaining overlooked Late Life Homelessness is the first Canadian book to address this often neglected issue Basing her analysis on a four year ethnographic study of late life homelessness in Montreal Canada Amanda Grenier uses a critical gerontological perspective to explore life at the intersection of aging and homelessness She draws attention to disadvantage over time and how the condition of being unhoused disrupts a person s ability to age in place resulting in experiences of unequal aging Weaving together findings from policy documents stakeholder insights and observations and interviews with older people this book demonstrates how structures organizational practices and relationships related to homelessness and aging come to shape late life Situated in the context of an aging population rising inequality and declining social commitments Late Life Homelessness stresses the moral imperative of responding justly to the needs of older people as a means of mitigating the unequal aging of unhoused elders Teaching U.S. History Through Children's Literature

Wanda Miller,1998-11-15 Similar to U S History Through Children s Literature From the Colonial Period to World War II in format and approach historical fiction and nonfiction are integrated into modern U S History For each of these topics Miller suggests two or more titles one for use with the entire class and one for use with small reading groups Summaries of the books author information activities and topics for discussion are supplemented with vocabulary lists and ideas for research topics and further reading This integrated approach makes history more meaningful to students and helps them retain historical details and facts by immersing them in stories surrounding historical events A well researched and thorough resource English Literature A-Level (ZIMSEC) Past Exam Questions and Model Answers David

Alcorn,1994-07 Synthesizing the ideas of theorists as diverse as Aristotle and Althusser Kohut and Derrida Alcorn explores the relationships between language and subjectivity The works of Joseph Conrad James Baldwin William Faulkner Arthur Miller D H Lawrence Ben Jonson George Orwell and others are the basis of this thoughtful analysis of the rhetorical resources of literary language Narcissism and the Literary Libido Marshall W. Alcorn Jr.,Marshall W. Alcorn,1997-07 What is it that makes language powerful This book uses the psychoanalytic concepts of narcissism and libidinal investment to explain how rhetoric compels us and how it can effect change Synthesizing the ideas of theorists as diverse as Aristotle and Althusser Kohut and Derrida Alcorn explores the relationships between language and subjectivity The works of Joseph Conrad James Baldwin William Faulkner Arthur Miller D H Lawrence Ben Jonson George Orwell and others are the basis of this thoughtful analysis of the rhetorical resources of literary language Using Freudian post Freudian and Lacanian theory Alcorn Investigates the power by means of which literary texts are able to fashion new and distinctly rhetorical experiences for readers He shows how the production of literary texts begins and ends with narcissistic self love and also shows how the reader s interest in these texts is directed by libidinal investment The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism in Public Discourse, Literature, and Film Michael C. Frank, 2017-06-14 This study investigates the overlaps between political discourse and literary and cinematic fiction arguing that both are informed by and contribute to the cultural imaginary of terrorism Whenever mass mediated acts of terrorism occur they tend to trigger a proliferation of threat scenarios not only in the realm of literature and film but also in the statements of policymakers security experts and journalists In the process the discursive boundary between the factual and the speculative can become difficult to discern To elucidate this phenomenon this book proposes that terror is a halfway house between the real and the imaginary For what characterizes terrorism is less the single act of violence than it is the fact that this act is perceived to be the beginning or part of a potential series and that further acts are expected to occur As turn of the century writers such as Stevenson and Conrad were the first to point out this gives terror a fantastical dimension a fact reinforced by the clandestine nature of both terrorist and counter terrorist operations Supported by contextual readings of selected texts and films from The Dynamiter and The Secret Agent through late Victorian science fiction to post 9 11 novels and cinema this study explores the complex interplay between actual incidents of political violence the surrounding discourse and fictional engagement with the issue to show how terrorism becomes an object of fantasy Drawing on research from a variety of disciplines The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism will be a valuable resource for those with interests in the areas of Literature and Film Terrorism Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Trauma Studies and Cultural Studies Teaching English Literature 16-19 Carol Atherton, Andrew Green, Gary Snapper, 2013-07-18 Teaching English Literature 16 19 is an essential new resource that is suitable for use both as an introductory guide for those new to teaching literature and also as an aid to reflection and renewal for more experienced teachers Using the central philosophy that students will learn best when actively engaged in discussion and encouraged to apply what they have learnt independently this highly practical new text contains discussion of the principles behind the teaching of literature at this level guidelines on course planning pedagogy content and subject knowledge advice on teaching literature taking into account a range of broader contexts such as literary criticism literary theory performance publishing creative writing and journalism examples of practical activities worksheets and suggestions for texts guides to available resources Aimed at English teachers teacher trainees teacher trainers and advisors this resource is packed full of new and workable ideas for teaching all English literature courses AP English Literature and Composition Premium, 2024: 8 Practice Tests + Comprehensive Review + Online Practice George
