Restless Book William Boyd:

Restless William Boyd, 2007-06-05 In December 2012 The Sundance Channel will air the BBC produced film RESTLESS starring Charlotte Rampling Michael Gambon Hayley Atwell and Rufus Sewell based on this novel by William Boyd Someone is trying to kill Sally Gilmartin It is the summer of 1976 and the only person she can trust is her daughter Ruth a young single mother struggling with her own demons Now Sally must tell her daughter the truth She is actually Eva Delectorskaya a Russian migr recruited for the British Secret Service in 1939 Soon Ruth is drawn deeper into the astonishing events of her mother s past including her work in New York City manipulating the press in order to shift public sentiment toward U S involvement in Second World War and her dangerous love affair with another spy Ruth also discovers that her mother has one final assignment This time though Eva can t do it alone she needs Ruth s help Full of tension and drama emotion and history this is storytelling at its finest Restless by William Boyd John O'Carroll, 2007 Novels of William Boyd Dr.

Rajesh Shashikant Latane, 2015-02-25 have great pleasure in writing this foreword to Dr Latane s book on the Novels of William Boyd The book is a significant contribution to Boyd criticism It has discussed the early the middle and the last phase of Boyd s novels In doing if the author has defined the totality of Boyd s vision Indeed every novel is a part of this totality and the totality is more than a mere sum of the novels The reciprocal relationship between the part and the whole is the crux of novel criticism and the book has given due justice to this aspect Another important feature of the book is the analysis of the postmodernist element in Boyd s novels This critical framework can be used to analysis the postmodernist element in the contemporary Indian novel in English Even going further it can be used to analyse the Postmodernist element in the contemporary Marathi novel A thesis is really acknowledged when it become a source material for the future researchers and comparatives Mr Latane s book has that potential I heartily wish a good reception to the book Dr Prakash Deshpande Kejkar Former Professor of English Shivaji University Kolhapur Restless William Boyd, 2009-08-24 CHOSEN FOR THE

DUCHESS OF CORNWALL S READING ROOM BOOK CLUB A wartime thriller featuring a resourceful woman in grave danger a great read HRH The Duchess of Cornwall It is 1939 Eva Delectorskaya is a beautiful 28 year old Russian migr e living in Paris As war breaks out she is recruited for the British Secret Service by Lucas Romer a mysterious Englishman and under his tutelage she learns to become the perfect spy to mask her emotions and trust no one including those she loves most Since the war Eva has carefully rebuilt her life as a typically English wife and mother But once a spy always a spy Now she must complete one final assignment and this time Eva can t do it alone she needs her daughter s help Reading Beyond the Book Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2013-04-02 Literary culture has become a form of popular culture over the last fifteen years thanks to the success of televised book clubs film adaptations big box book stores online bookselling and face to face and online book groups This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK USA and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organizers

The resurgence of book groups has inspired new cultural formations of what the authors call shared reading. They interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers, community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers, cultural workers, institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading.

Living, Dying, Death, and Bereavement (Volume One) David E. Balk, 2020-10-21 This two volume book offers extensive interviews with persons who have made significant contributions to thanatology, the study of dying, death, loss and grief. The book's in-depth conversations provide compelling life stories of interest to clinicians, researchers and educated lay persons and to specialists interested in oral history as a means of gaining rich understandings of persons' lives. Several disciplines that contribute to thanatology are represented in this book, such as psychology, religious studies, art, literature, history, social work, nursing, theology, education, psychiatry, sociology, philosophy and anthropology. The book is unique; no other text offers such a comprehensive, insightful and personal review of work in the thanatology field. The salience of thanatology is obvious when we consider several topics, including the aging demographics of most countries, the leading causes of death, the devastation of COVID-19, the realities of how most persons die, the growth both of hospice and of efforts within medicine to ensure that a good death becomes the norm of medical practice and increases in the number of countries and states permitting physician-assisted suicide. Volume One includes conversations with 21 thanatologists and an introductory chapter in which the author provides an overview of the project and offers reflections on what these thanatologists have told him. The experts interviewed here include Robert Fulton, Sandra Bertman, Bill Worden, Charles Corr, Sister Frances Dominica, Myra Bluebond Langner, Nancy Hogan, Robert Neimeyer, Ken Doka and Donna Schuurman.

The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader Helen Cousins, 2016-03-03 In January 2004, daytime television presenters Richard Madeley and Judy Finnigan launched their book club and sparked debate about the way people in Britain, from the general reader to publishers to the literati, thought about books and reading. The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader brings together historians of the book, literature scholars and specialists in media and cultural studies to examine the effect of the club on reading practices and the publishing and promotion of books. Beginning with an analysis of the book club's history and its ongoing development in relation to other reading groups worldwide, including Oprah's, the editors consider issues of book marketing and genre. Further chapters explore the effects of the mass broadcast celebrity book club on society, literature and its marketing and popular culture. Contributors ask how readers discuss books, judge value and make choices. The collection addresses questions of authorship, authority and canon in texts connected by theme or genre, including the postcolonial, exotic, disability and representations of the body, food, books and domesticity. In addition, book club author Andrew Smith shares his experiences in a fascinating interview.
