Doyle Stevick, Deborah Michaels, 2017-10-02 Holocaust Education Promise Practice Power and Potential provides timely studies of some of the most pressing issues in teaching and learning about the Holocaust around the world Europe is experiencing both anti Semitic attacks many by radicals claiming the banner of Islam and the resurgence of right wing movements that are openly hostile to minority rights particularly for marginalized and vulnerable groups like the Roma Sinti and Muslim refugees Can Holocaust education an encounter with the most extreme racial ideology to afflict the continent reduce violence and prejudice against Jewish and other minority groups The important studies in this volume address these and other pressing issues for the field including the progress of Central and Eastern European countries that experienced both Soviet hegemony and Nazi terror in grappling with the history of the Holocaust This book was originally published as a special issue of Intercultural Education School-University-Community Collaboration for Civic Education and Engagement in the Democratic Project R. Martin Reardon, Jack Leonard, 2022-05-01 The Campaign for the Civic Mission of Schools 2011 lamented the lack of high quality civic education in America s schools that leaves millions of citizens without the wherewithal to make sense of our system of government p 4 Preus et al 2016 cited literature to support their observation of a decline in high quality civic education and a low rate of civic engagement of young people p 67 Shapiro and Brown 2018 asserted that civic knowledge and public engagement is at an all time low p 1 Writing as a college senior Flaherty 2020 urged educators to bravely interpret national local and even school level incidents as chances for enhanced civic education and to discuss them with students in both formal and casual settings p 6 In this eighth volume in the Current Perspectives on School University Community Research series we feature the work of brave educators who are engaged in schooluniversity community collaborative educational endeavors Authors focus on a wide range of projects oriented to civic education writ large some that have been completed and some that are still in progress but all authors evince the passion for civic education that underpins engagement in the democratic project Nazi and Holocaust Representations in Anglo-American Popular Culture, 1945-2020 Jeffrey Demsky,2021-08-17 This book analyzes sensationalized Nazi and Holocaust representations in Anglo American cultural and political discourses Recognizing that this history is increasingly removed from contemporary life it explains how irreverent representations can help rejuvenate the story for successive generations of new learners Surveying seventy five years of transatlantic activities the work erects counterposing categorizes of constructive and destructive memorializing providing scholars with a new framework for elucidating both this history and its historicization

Classroom Connect Newsletter ,2000 Cross-Curricular Teaching and Learning in the Secondary School... Humanities Richard Harris,Simon Harrison,Richard McFahn,2013-03 Drawing on case studies taken from a range of innovative secondary schools and interrogating the use of cross curricular approaches in UK schools Cross Curricular Teaching and Learning in Humanities constructs a research based pedagogy with practical steps for students and teachers as they consider how cross curricular approaches can be implemented in their own subject areas Literacy Lessons Margaret J. Finders,Susan Hynds,2003 For Language Arts English and Middle School methods courses graduate level literacy courses With its sights clearly set on middle school teachers and the middle school teaching experience this new text expands the definition of literacy to encompass today s popular electronic and audiovisual media Research driven coverage offers a thorough presentation of the theory of middle school teaching plus a wealth of real stories from real classrooms that demonstrate strategies in actual practice The authors address the current emphasis on standards discussing their advantages and disadvantages and integrating them throughout They also embrace the notion of inclusion by offering numerous suggestions for teaching special needs students in the regular classroom and explore the social and cultural complexities and the joys and challenges of teaching today s adolescents The American Journey Joyce Oldham Appleby,Alan Brinkley,James M. McPherson,2003 Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation Tania Ferfolja,Jacqueline Ullman,2020-05-10 Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation provides an outstanding and insightful critique of the ways that contemporary education is impacted by a range of political social and cultural influences that inform the approaches that schools take in relation to gender and sexuality diversity By applying feminist poststructural and Foucauldian frameworks the book examines the ongoing impact of broader socio cultural discourse on the lives of gender and sexuality diverse students and teachers Beginning with an overview of the impact of how a culture of limitation is realised in Australia the focus moves beyond this context to examine state and federal policies from comparable societies in countries including the USA and the UK and their effect on the production of knowledges and what s permissible to include in educational curriculum This research driven book thus provides a comparative international overview of the current state of gender and sexuality diversity in schools and convincingly demonstrates that despite some empowerment of gender and sexuality diverse individuals silencing and marginalization remain powerful forces This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students academics professionals and policy makers interested in the field of gender and sexuality in education It is essential reading for those involved in pre service and in service teacher education diversity education the sociology of education as well as education more generally

Out of Turmoil Dean P. Vesperman, Anne Aydinian-Perry, Matthew T. Missias, Whitney G. Blankenship, 2023-01-01 It is not difficult to argue that the social sciences are in a period of transition Our day to day lives have been marked by uncertainty as our social lives have vacillated wildly between highs and lows tensions between fellow citizens have heightened along ideological fault lines and educators have been placed squarely at the center of public discourses about what and how we should be teaching By any measure we are living in a time where every moment seems to be rife with high stakes realities that must be navigated Ladson Billings 2020 called on educators to reimagine education and contest the notion of a return to normal In the current highly polarized context where we see multiple competing narratives rather than promoting a return to normal or business as usual approach we argue that educators must use the lessons of the last two years as well as draw on what we have learned from history and the social sciences By asking ourselves how we might interrogate and inform current social landscapes and the challenges that arise from them we have the opportunity to take leadership in fostering innovation building solidarity and re imagining the teaching and learning of history and the social sciences We recognize that humans live in multiple complex communities that include intersectional identities relationships with power agency and discourses and lived realities that are as unique as they are divergent Consequently the task of educators and the goal of this volume is to provide a clarion voice to a dynamic relational and undeniably human social world
