

Unit 1: The Human Body

Body Organization

Understanding Order in the Body

This diagram illustrates the levels of organization in the human body. The levels are arranged from left to right, showing the progression from the smallest unit of life (a cell) to the entire organism (the human body). The levels are: Cell, Tissue, Organ, Organ System, and Organism. The diagram shows how these levels are interconnected and how they build upon each other to form the complex structure of the human body.

1. The _____ is the basic unit of life.
2. Cells are grouped together to form _____.
3. Tissues are made up of cells that work together to perform a specific function.
4. Organs are made up of different tissues that work together to perform a specific function.
