1995 was a big year for the village! Thanks to the fact that we've become a more popular location for the village, the village group has been able to negotiate a more favourable lease in 1995. It appears that the village is the result of a strong commitment in the Government to bring the village back to life. The village group has been working hard to make the village a more attractive place to live. The village group has been working hard to make the village a more attractive place to live.
