not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.
 20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you, because that for the hope of life we are bound with this chain.
 21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of thee concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that sent shew'd or spake any harm of thee.
 22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest; for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.
 23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning life, both out of the law of MO's, and out of the prophets.
 24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.
 25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well saith the Holy Ghost by E-487-Is the prophet unto our fathers.

 26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:
 27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should save them.
 28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.
 29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.
 30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Romans

Chapter 1

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,
 2 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;
 3 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead;
 4 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:
 5 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ;
 6 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 7 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
 8 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers.
 9 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established.
 12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.
 13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.
 14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.
 15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.
 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
 17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.
 18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.
 19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shew'd it unto them.

Handwritten text in Greek script, likely a translation or commentary on the biblical text. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page area. It appears to be a continuation of the epistle's content, possibly in a different language or dialect. The script is cursive and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge.

Romans For The Practical Messianic:

Romans for the Practical Messianic J. K. Mckee,2015-01-03 Paul s letter to the Romans is easily discerned to be the most influential letter ever written in human history It has had a significant impact on religious authorities governmental authorities and philosophies on God human behavior and societal order There is no denying the great theological importance that the Epistle to the Romans has had throughout Christian history especially since the Protestant Reformation Romans was written against the backdrop of both the Apostle Paul setting his ministry activity westward toward Spain and the Roman Jewish Believers returning to Rome after the Edict of Claudius and finding that things would not exactly be the same with the assembly of Messiah followers being majority non Jewish Paul s letter to the Romans was written as a presentation of his theology of the gospel to a group of people with whom he was not directly acquainted but also to issue some admonitions to their circumstances so that all might get along Romans is a key epistle for Pauline theology to be sure regarding issues surrounding salvation justification and righteousness the Jewish people and the Kingdom of Israel the nations and the Torah of Moses Yet Romans is also about some significant First Century issues regarding the redemption of the Jewish people and the nations and them functioning together in one Body of Messiah In much of Romans examination only up until the past few decades Paul s letter has principally been viewed as a theological treatise and not a letter written to ancient Messiah followers While there are many useful perspectives and insights offered by those past voices who have considered Romans the setting of Romans is quite important and most relevant for the broad contemporary Messianic movement Much of the ancient setting of Romans with the Jewish Believers getting reintegrated into the fellowships of Believers parallels much of what we see in our own faith community The Messianic movement of today is a majority non Jewish group of people yet both Jewish and non Jewish Believers do rely on one another and should be eagerly about lov ing one another with mutual affection outdo ing one another in showing honor Romans 12 10 NRSV This Messianic study on Romans is definitely one produced for the 2010s and for the challenges that the Messianic movement presently faces TNN Online editor J K McKee offers a compelling examination of this letter appreciating the perspectives of Law positive Christian traditions which have preceded us but one which is also engaged with some contemporary perspectives These include proposals present via the New Perspective on Paul studies and thoughts regarding the I of Romans ch 7 egalitarian views regarding figures such as Phoebe and Junia in Romans ch 16 and most especially current Messianic handling of the topic of Israel in Romans chs 9 11 Romans for the Practical Messianic is a commentary that should be welcome in many Messianic libraries as it interjects some well needed information into our developing theology of both Paul and the mission of God Also included in this commentary is an exposition on Acts 28 11 31 Paul s arrival in Rome Philippians for the Practical Messianic J. K. Mckee,2007-01-01 The letter of Paul to the Philippians is a frequently overlooked and disregarded text in the Bible by today s Messianic community yet it speaks so profoundly to many of the spiritual issues we are facing or will undoubtedly be dealing with in the near future

Perhaps with the most Roman character of any other book of the Apostolic Scriptures New Testament save Paul's letter to the Romans Philippians invites us into a community of First Century Believers on their own in the Roman colony of Philippi. These people are surrounded by neighbors who are hostile to both Judaism and the gospel message of Messiah Yeshua. Their numbers are few but the Apostle Paul is able to consider them his close and affectionate friends and seldom has a negative word for them. The Philippians are generous to his ministry work and Paul has strong feelings for their well being and calling in the Lord. The Epistle to the Philippians presents us with many theological and social questions that cannot be avoided by anyone who reads it. Above all things the Apostle Paul places Yeshua the Messiah Jesus Christ at the center of his life and urges his Philippian brothers and sisters to do the same. He urges the Philippians to be kind generous and significantly different from their neighbors. He urges them to show humility and to be about the supreme service of the gospel even unto death. He urges unity in the assembly and that all demonstrate God's love to others. He affirms the mystery of both the Divinity and humanity of Yeshua. Paul also recognizes the value of women in the local congregation as servants and leaders. For the modern Messianic Philippians gives us a definitive example of how small fellowships and congregations on their own should function in addition to the huge questions of how we must have a global vision that recognizes the virtues of other ethnicities and cultures while still maintaining an Hebraic view of the Scriptures and God's mission. In the commentary Philippians for the Practical Messianic TNN Online editor J K McKee addresses many of the avoided issues that this text asks Messianic Believers. He takes into account the First Century Jewish and Roman background of Paul's letter. He also considers the large amount of intertextual references that Philippians makes to the Tanach Old Testament deeply embedded in Paul's vocabulary and mannerisms. Most importantly he considers the centrality of Yeshua and His completed work for Paul and how all human achievements pale in comparison to who He should be for us as born again Believers who have experienced His transforming power. Also included in this commentary is an exposition on Acts 16:6-40 Paul's visit to Philippi.

Misunderstanding Galatians M. I. Cha, 2021-09-16 This commentary on Galatians seeks to provide an originalist understanding of the epistle by viewing Paul as a Torah observant apostle of the Messiah who was arguing against compulsory proselyte conversion into Pharisaic Judaism and not the Old Testament law of God in general. As such this commentary pays closer attention to the perpetuity of the Old Testament law of God. Paul's nuanced use of law nomos Jewish oral tradition and the historical context of gentile proselyte conversion in Paul's time. The goal of this commentary is to combine the strengths of evangelical hermeneutics and recent advances in Pauline studies to arrive at a more accurate understanding of the original author's intended meaning within his own historical context. Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E. Rock, 2012-11-07 This book seeks to demonstrate that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the crisis of facing death. Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace and not Rome's peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of the Emperor If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God's power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is one and Lord of all is still in charge of the world

Menasseh ben Israel and his World Yosef Kaplan, Henry Méchoulan, Richard H. Popkin, 1989-12-01 This book the results of a conference held in Israel in 1985 brings together many new perspectives on the significance of Menasseh ben Israel's ideas and their relation to Christian millenarian views of the time and Jewish kabbalistic and messianistic thought Scholars from America Europe and Israel working on various aspects of 17th century philosophy and religion present here in 18 essays important new data and interpretations of the Jewish and Christian background and of Menasseh's ideas and their relation to those of Jewish and Christian thinkers of the time Thus this volume provides the grounds for reassessing on the basis of recent scholarship the ferment of messianic and millenarian ideas issuing from Holland and England in the mid 17th century

Judaism , Hebrews: a Reader's Companion Michael Cannon Loehrer, 2016-09-27 Hebrews A Readers Companion is the first in a series of books called The Jewish Christian Letters A decidedly Jewish mind set governed the first century church in the cradle of Christianity There was also a Gentile mind set which has governed ever since leaving most of the New Testament more easily understandable during these times of the Gentiles However several books in the New Testament are best understood as Jewish Christian documents The historical setting of the first century yields many insights which make for a full interpretation and ready application of the Jewish Christian letters a truth nowhere more apparent than the book of Hebrews which this readers companion to Holy Scriptures offers to bring to life

Religious Dissent in the Roman Empire Vasily Rudich, 2015-03-24 Religious Dissent in the Roman Empire is the third installment in Vasily Rudich's trilogy on the psychology of discontent in the Roman Empire at the time of Nero Unlike his earlier books it deals not with political dissidence but with religious dissent especially in its violent form Against the broad background of Second Temple Judaism and Judaea's history under Rome's rule Rudich discusses various manifestations of religious dissent as distinct from the mainstream beliefs and directed against both the foreign occupier and the priestly establishment This book offers the methodological framework for the analysis of the religious dissent mindset which it considers a recurrent historical phenomenon that may play a major role in different periods and cultures In this respect its findings are also relevant to the rise of religious violence in the world today and provide further insights into its persistent motives and paradigms Religious Dissent in the Roman Empire is an important study for people interested in Roman and Jewish history religious psychology and religious extremism cultural interaction and the roots of violence
