Neighbourhood Perceptions of the Ukraine Crisis Gerhard Besier, Katarzyna Stoklosa, 2016-11-03 Recent events in Ukraine and Russia and the subsequent incorporation of Crimea into the Russian state with the support of some circles of inhabitants of the peninsula have shown that the desire of people to belong to the Western part of Europe should not automatically be assumed Discussing different perceptions of the Ukrainian Russian war in neighbouring countries this book offers an analysis of the conflicts and issues connected with the shifting of the border regions of Russia and Ukraine to show how material and psychological borders are never completely stable ideas The contributors historians sociologists anthropologists and political scientists from across Europe use an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to explore the different national and transnational perceptions of a possible future role for Russia

The European Union and the Geopolitics of the Arctic Andreas Raspotnik, 2018-01-26 The Arctic is a region that has seen exponential growth as a space of geopolitical interest over the past decade This insightful book is the first to analyse the European Union s Arctic policy endeavours of the early 21st Century from a critical geopolitical perspective

Handbook of Research on Comparative Human Resource Management Chris Brewster, Wolfgang Mayrhofer, Elaine Farndale, 2018-04-27 This second updated and extended edition of the Handbook of Research on Comparative Human Resource Management draws on the work of many of the world s leading researchers in the field to present the state of the art to scholars students and practitioners The Handbook provides a detailed focus on the theoretical underpinnings of Comparative HRM on comparative studies of specific areas of HRM practice and on the unique features of HRM in all the main regions of the world Ageing in Cities OECD,2015-04-30 This book examines trends in ageing societies and urban development before assessing the impact of ageing populations on urban areas and strategies for policy and governance It includes 9 case studies Conservation Agriculture in Subsistence Farming Catherine Chan,Jean Fantle-Lepczyk,2015-06-16 Conservation agriculture systems have long term impacts on livelihoods agricultural production gender equity and regional economic development of tribal societies in South Asia This book presents South Asia as a case study due to the high soil erosion caused by monsoon rainfall and geophysical conditions in the region which necessitate conservation agriculture approaches and the high percentage of people in South Asia relying on subsistence and traditional farming The book takes an interdisciplinary approach to analyse systems at scales ranging from household to regional and national levels London the Promised Land Revisited Anne J. Kershen,2016-03-09 Some two decades since the publication of London the Promised Land which charted and investigated the successes and failures of the migrant experience in London over a period of three hundred years this book re examines the migrant landscape in London While remaining a beacon for immigrants the migrant face of the city has changed rapidly and dramatically from one which was heavily populated by semi skilled and unskilled post colonial incomers to one which now embraces the EU Accession Countries refugees from the Middle East and Africa oligarchs from Russia the new wealthy from China economic migrants from Latin America and Ireland and still post colonial immigrants at the same time witnessing the exodus home of incomers or their descendants who now see opportunities where there were none before The contributors all leading academics and practitioners in their diverse fields examine changes to the migrant landscape of contemporary London at the micro meso and macro levels London the Promised Land Revisited thus explores a range of experiences in the capital including the presence and treatment of illness amongst migrants the phenomenon of migrant invisibility and asylum the migrant marketplace and ethnic clustering and interaction with local and national government across a variety of migrant groups both new and old As such this book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interest in migration migrant experiences and the contemporary global city Deepening Neoliberalism, Austerity, and Crisis Julien Mercille,Enda Murphy,2015-07-07 From bank bailouts to austerity Europe s and Ireland s response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland s crisis resolution The Economics of Chocolate Mara P. Squicciarini,Johan F. M. Swinnen,2016 This book written by global experts provides a comprehensive and topical analysis on the economics of chocolate While the main approach is economic analysis there are important contributions from other disciplines including psychology history government nutrition and geography The chapters are organized around several themes including the history of cocoa and chocolate from cocoa drinks in the Maya empire to the growing sales of Belgian chocolates in China how governments have used cocoa and chocolate as a source of tax revenue and have regulated chocolate and defined it by law to protect consumers health from fraud and industries from competition how the poor cocoa producers in developing countries are linked through trade and multinational companies with rich consumers in industrialized countries and how the rise of consumption in emerging markets China India and Africa is causing a major boom in global demand and prices and a potential shortage of the world s chocolate Commemorative Spaces of the First World War James Wallis, David C. Harvey, 2017-07-20 This is the first book to bring together an interdisciplinary theoretically engaged and global perspective on the First World War through the lens of historical and cultural geography Reflecting the centennial interest in the conflict the collection explores the relationships between warfare and space and pays particular attention to how commemoration is connected to spatial elements of national identity and processes of heritage and belonging Venturing beyond military history and memory studies contributors explore conceptual contributions of geography to analyse the First World War as well as reflecting upon the imperative for an academic discussion on the War s centenary This book explores the War s impact in more unexpected theatres blurring the boundary between home and fighting fronts investigating the experiences of the war amongst civilians and often overlooked combatants It also critically examines the politics of hindsight in the post war period and offers an historical geographical account of how the First World War has been memorialised within official spaces in addition to those overlooked and often undervalued alternative spaces of commemoration This innovative and timely text will be key reading for students and scholars of the First World War and more broadly in historical and cultural geography social and cultural history European history Heritage Studies military history and memory studies

Sentient Subjects Gerda Roelvink, Magdalena Zolkos, 2020-12-27 Non cognitive expressions of the life of the subject feeling motion tactility instinct automatism and sentience have transformed how scholars understand subjectivity agency and identity This collection investigates the critical purchase of the idiom of affect in this post humanist thinking of the subject It also explores political and ethical questions raised by the deployment of affect as a theoretical and artistic category Together the contributors to this collection map the theoretically heterogeneous field of post humanist scholarship on affect making inspiring and at times surprising connections between Spinoza s and Tomkins s theories of affect the concept of affect and psychoanalysis and affect and animal studies in art and literature As a result the concepts vocabulary compatibility and attribution of affect are challenged and extended The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Angelaki

What gender mainstreaming means in practice Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-10-10 The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO has continuously demonstrated within its work that gender equality is not simply a matter of human rights but is key to eliminating poverty and hunger It is only by closing the gender gap that sustainable agriculture and rural development can reach their full potential Consequently FAO is committed to promoting gender equality in all of its interventions as well as by building knowledge identifying promising practices and widely disseminating these among member states and national partners This publication focuses on case studies from five member countries of the European Union EU These illustrate how gender equality issues can be addressed in agriculture and rural development policies including fisheries and aquaculture forestry and livestock programmes and practices This publication forms part of FAO s wider efforts to collect analyse and disseminate promising practices on gender mainstreaming

Voices in the Media Gaëlle Planchenault, 2015-10-22 Verbal performances are often encountered in the media where they are used to embody characters or social archetypes Performed voices define the norm as well as the linguistic Others and by doing so circulate associated values and linguistic ideologies This book explores the idea that far from simply being exercises in verbal skill and flair performances of social ethnic or gendered voices in the media not only have the power to accomplish ideological work they are also sites of linguistic tension and negotiation Critically examining performances of French voices in the media this book raises the following questions How are repertoires of voices constructed and subsequently perpetuated in the media How do the stereotypic personae these voices contribute to build become familiar to national as well as transnational audiences How do such performed voices reproduce hegemonic ideologies of standard and non standard languages and participate in the perpetuation of social discriminations How are these performed voices commodified into cultural products of otherness that may later be reclaimed by stigmatized communities Following an innovative framework which allows for analysis of performances of varied voices and their impact in the media sphere Voices in the Media offers a new approach to the linguistics of media performance

Housing Booms in Gateway Cities David Ley, 2023-06-29 HOUSING BOOMS IN GATEWAY CITIES David Ley examines the development of housing booms and policies intended to stimulate or limit them Utilising a comparative approach in five gateway cities he provides a superb understanding of the politics of booms lifting the debate beyond narrow housing and real estate studies This book is required reading for anyone interested in global cities housing markets or comparative urbanism

Manuel B Aalbers Professor of Human Geography KU Leuven Belgium A stellar contribution to housing and its financialisation as central to the capitalist project globally Housing Booms offers a wonderful window into the ascendancy of the secondary circuit of real estate in Singapore Hong Kong Sydney Vancouver and London Critically through careful empirically rigorous comparison an eminent urban social scientist urges us to understand the importance of placing urban housing theoretically

Loretta Lees Director of the Initiative on Cities Boston University Mastering a wealth of information and insights from five gateway cities David Ley provides fresh and inspiring explanation of both common global logics and diverse local trajectories of housing booms in the era of financialisation and asset based accumulation A timely and ground breaking contribution re positioning housing to the centrality pervasively felt in everyday life but largely unacknowledged in mainstream social science

George Lin Chair Professor of Geography University of Hong Kong In Housing Booms in Gateway Cities renowned geographer Dr David Ley delivers a detailed exploration of housing markets in Hong Kong Singapore Sydney Vancouver and London and explains why these gateway cities have seen dramatic increases in residential real estate prices

since the 1980s The author describes how the globalization of real estate has rapidly inflated demand and uncoupled local housing prices from local wages causing acute problems of affordability availability and inequality The book implicates government policy in massive real estate price inflation describing a shift from welfare based to asset based societies It also highlights the relatively unique experience in Singapore where asset based housing policy has encouraged the dispersion of ownership and accumulation through an increased supply of subsidized leasehold apartments and the regulation of disruptive investment flows Housing Booms in Gateway Cities is an ideal resource for academics students and policymakers with an interest in urban geography sociology and planning housing studies and any of the cities discussed in the book It is an innovative treatment of housing as a central category in wealth accumulation in urban economies and societies Spiritual and Religious Tourism Ruth Dowson, Jabar Yaqub, Razaq Raj, 2019-08-12 This book reviews tourist motivations for making religious or spiritual journeys and the management aspects related to them It explores sacred journeys across both traditional religions such as Christianity and Islam and newer forms of pilgrimage faith systems and quasi religious activities such as sport music and food Demonstrating to the reader the intrinsic elements and events that play a crucial role within the destination management process it provides a timely re assessment of the increasing interconnections between religion and spirituality as a motivation for travel Providing researchers and students of tourism religious studies anthropology and related subjects with an important review of the topic this book aims to bridge the ever widening gap between specialists within the religious tourism management and education sectors Future North Janike Kampevd Larsen, Peter Hemmersam, 2018-04-09 The changing Arctic is of broad political concern and is being studied across many fields This book investigates ongoing changes in the Arctic from a landscape perspective It examines settlements and territories of the Barents Sea Coast Northern Norway the Russian Kola Peninsula Svalbard and Greenland from an interdisciplinary design based and future oriented perspective The Future North project has travelled Arctic regions since 2012 mapped landscapes and settlements documented stories and practices and discussed possible futures with local actors Reflecting the multidisciplinary nature of the project the authors in this book look at political and economic strategies urban development land use strategies and local initiatives in specific locations that are subject to different forces of change This book explores current material conditions in the Arctic as effects of industrial and political agency and social initiatives It provides a combined view on the built environment and urbanism as well as the cultural and material landscapes of the Arctic The chapters move beyond single disciplinary perspectives on the Arctic and engage with futures cultural landscapes and communities in ways that build on both architectural and ethnographic participatory methods Advancing Culture of Living with Landslides Matjaž Mikoš, Vít Vilímek, Yueping Yin, Kyoji Sassa, 2017-05-17 This volume contains peer reviewed papers from the Fourth World Landslide Forum organized by the International Consortium on Landslides ICL the Global Promotion Committee of the International Programme on Landslides IPL University of Ljubljana UL and Geological Survey of
