Mostow,2003 This extraordinary one volume guide to the modern literatures of China Japan and Korea is the definitive reference work on the subject in the English language With more than one hundred articles that show how a host of authors and literary movements have contributed to the general literary development of their respective countries this companion is an essential starting point for the study of East Asian literatures Comprehensive thematic essays introduce each geographical section with historical overviews and surveys of persistent themes in the literature examined including nationalism gender family relations and sexuality Following the thematic essays are the individual entries over forty for China over fifty for Japan and almost thirty for Korea featuring everything from detailed analyses of the works of Tanizaki Jun ichiro and Murakami Haruki to far ranging explorations of avant garde fiction in China and postwar novels in Korea Arrayed chronologically each entry is self contained though extensive cross referencing affords readers the opportunity to gain a more synoptic view of the work author or movement The unrivaled opportunities for comparative analysis alone make this unique companion an indispensable reference for anyone interested in the burgeoning field of Asian literature Although the literatures of China Japan and Korea are each allotted separate sections the editors constantly kept an eye open to those writers works and movements that transcend national boundaries This includes for example Chinese authors who lived and wrote in Japan Japanese authors who wrote in classical Chinese and Korean authors who write in Japanese whether under the colonial occupation or because they are resident in Japan The waves of modernization can be seen as reaching each of these countries in a staggered fashion with eddies and back flows between them then complicating the picture further This volume provides a vivid sense of this dynamic interplay Together in Manzanar Tracy Slater,2025-07-08 On a late March morning in the spring of 1942 Elaine Yoneda awoke to a series of terrible choices between her family and freedom her country and conscience and her son and daughter She was the child of Russian Jewish immigrants and the wife of a Japanese American man On this war torn morning she was also a mother desperate to keep her young mixed race son from being sent to a US concentration camp Manzanar near Death Valley was one of ten detention centers where our government would eventually imprison every person of Japanese descent along the West Coast alien and citizen old and young healthy and sick or in the words of one official anyone with even one drop of Japanese blood Elaine s husband Karl was already in Manzanar but he planned to enlist as soon as the US Army would take him The Yonedas were prominent labor and antifascist activists and Karl was committed to fighting for what they had long cherished equality freedom and democracy Yet when Karl went to war their son Tommy three years old and chronically ill would be left alone in Manzanar unless Elaine convinced the US government to imprison her as well The consequences of Elaine s choice did not end there if she somehow found a way to force herself behind barbed wire with her husband and son she would leave behind her white daughter from a previous marriage Together in Manzanar tells the story
