Question	Answer
1. What is the main purpose of the study?	To investigate the effect of the new curriculum on the learning outcomes of the students.
2. What are the research objectives?	To determine the level of student achievement, to identify the factors affecting student achievement, and to compare the learning outcomes of the students before and after the implementation of the new curriculum.
3. What is the research methodology?	The study uses a quantitative research methodology, specifically a quasi-experimental design, to compare the learning outcomes of the students before and after the implementation of the new curriculum.
4. What are the research findings?	The study found that the new curriculum had a positive effect on the learning outcomes of the students, as evidenced by the significant improvement in their scores on the standardized tests.
5. What are the conclusions and recommendations?	The study concludes that the new curriculum is effective in improving student learning outcomes. It recommends that the new curriculum be implemented in all schools and that further research be conducted to explore the factors that contribute to the success of the new curriculum.
