Guided Reading

Postwar America

1. How does each of the authors describe the problems associated with postwar problems?

1. Problems: Millions of returning veterans and millions of youth are finding themselves without jobs.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed the United States Housing Act, guaranteeing veterans a year's income if unemployed; benefits while job hunting; it offered unemployment benefits, guaranteed income.

2. Problems: Severe housing shortage.

Solutions offered by developers such as William Levitt	Levitt used assembly-line techniques through production houses, offering income for small residential communities called suburbs for less than $17,500.
Solutions offered by the Truman and Eisenhower administrations	The Truman and Eisenhower administrations provided financial support for urban renewal and housing, working with the private business.

3. Problems: Severe inflation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed Truman Administration recommendations, reducing prices for the economy, providing for price, wage, and rent.

4. Problems: Labor unions that threaten to supply the nation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	Truman's administration said the nation's workers could be able to refuse to work on the job. He said that the federal government to union that there was no government to take control of the economy, for the very workers (union) to work for them.

5. Problems: Discrimination and racial violence.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	The Truman administration wanted an anti-discrimination act that would give federal housing, employment, in government and rights, education, integration, the workplace, and not used for discrimination in the federal government employment.

6. Evaluate the significance of leaders in, Eisenhower, and Paul Robeson.

Leaders	The leaders were asked to work on the building of the economy, which they helped to build in a severe housing shortage.
