School Based Learning Programmes And Their Implications On Teacher Quality In Molo Sub-County In Kenya

Joshua Gichaba Manduku, Sally Cherono, Jane Chrichir, 2017-07-06 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2017 in the subject Pedagogy The Teacher Educational Leadership grade 14 University of Kabanga EDUCATION course EDUCATION ADMINISTRATION language English abstract The purpose of this study was to assess the effect of School Based Learning Programmes on teachers effectiveness in Molo Subcounty School Based Learning Programme is a mode of study undertaken by teachers who are already in the teaching profession This programme is offered during the school holidays in April August and December and in the evenings and weekends The programme affects the teachers performance in their respective secondary schools either positively or negatively This study was guided by five main objectives To determine the effect of School Based Learning Programme on teacher s effectiveness on planning for instruction on lesson content delivery teacher s evaluation skills on development of Student Teacher relationship and finally to examine the effect on their use of teaching learning resources on their teaching The study employed descriptive survey design 356 teachers 36 head teachers one Quality Assurance and Standards Officer which formed a target population of 393 respondents Child Welfare in Developing Countries John Cockburn, Jane Kabubo-Mariara, 2010-08-09 to establish impact attributing observed changes in welfare to the intervention while identifying key factors of success Impact evaluations are aimed at providing feedback to help improve the design of programs and policies They also provide greater accountability and a tool for dynamic learning allowing policymakers to improve ongoing programs and ultimately better allocate funds across programs Such a causal analysis is essential for understanding the relative role of alternative interventions in reducing poverty The papers in this section again adopt a variety of techniques The first two impact evaluation studies employ propensity score matching to establish ex post a valid control group to assess the impact on child schooling outcomes among beneficiaries of various interventions in Kenya and Ethiopia The third chapter carries out an ex ante evaluation of alternative cash transfer programs on child school attendance in Uruguay The final paper further carries out in depth macro modeling and micro regression analysis to simulate the impacts of the food crisis and various policy responses including food subsidies and cash transfers on various dimensions of child poverty in Mali Though using different approaches the studies are generally in agreement concerning the positive impact of the cash transfer program on child schooling and labor market outcomes The studies from Kenya and Uruguay both find that the schooling interventions are progressive Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben

Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style Estudios en El Extranjero Unesco,2003 This is the 32nd edition of the publication which contains over 2 500 entries giving information about post secondary education and training opportunities in all academic and professional fields in 147 countries for years 2004 and 2005 It has a special focus on distance education including open and distance learning ODL with an annotated listing of online directories and databases of ODL courses worldwide Information is also given on courses scholarships and financial assistance available to foreign students recognition of studies and diplomas obtained abroad and key issues students should consider before embarking on higher education study The text is written in English French and Spanish Industrial and Organizational Psychology Help the Vulnerable W. Reichman,2014-06-25 Industrial and Organizational Psychology Help the Vulnerable documents a new direction for industrial and organizational psychology The chapters are written by psychologists who have used the methods procedures and theories of industrial and organizational psychology to help the vulnerable people of the world

Promoting Gender Equity in Selected Public Universities of Kenya Jane Onsongo,2011 The purpose of this study was to examine sustainable gender equity interventions in selected public universities The study used descriptive survey and case study research methods to carry out an in depth analysis of the gender equity interventions in selected public universities in Kenya The sample consisted of four public universities that were selected because they had established gender centers institutes that were assumed to be coordinating gender equity intervention The study has the following objectives To establish the existing gender inequalities in the formal organisational structure of the selected universities To identify and assess sustainability of gender equity interventions in the selected public universities To analyse the national regional international and organisational culture and policy contexts that have influenced and supported the introduction of the identified gender equity interventions To investigate the attitudes of staff students and management towards the gender equity interventions and to recommend appropriate institutional strategies to address existing gender inequities The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya Mulinge, Munyae M.,Arasa, Josephine N.,2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya

Transforming Tertiary Agricultural Education in Africa David Kraybill, John Lynam, Adipala Ekwamu, 2021-11-24 Enormous changes are affecting African production agriculture urbanization and food consumption patterns requiring new approaches to training and knowledge generation and dissemination to achieve food security Many agricultural universities and other tertiary agricultural education TAE organizations have been slow to respond hindered by inadequate staffing and facilities and growing competition for funds However some African agricultural universities are transforming themselves and are achieving remarkable success This book documents successful approaches to remaking TAE in Africa to inspire leaders both formal and informal of other TAE organizations It emphasises adaptive strategies and processes creating an internal culture driven by stakeholder needs and where organizational transformation improves the quality and relevance of teaching research and outreach The chapters cover the role of TAE in agricultural transformation trends in TAE in Africa solutions to the rigour versus relevance dilemma curriculum design informed by actual and emerging labour market conditions innovation and entrepreneurship TAE quality assurance and networking among TAE institutions
