

PUWER - WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The Provision and Use of Work Equipment Regulations 1998

These regulations require the employer to prevent or control health and safety risks created by equipment used at work.

If an employer allows employees to provide their own equipment then this equipment is also covered by PUWER, and the employer should ensure it complies to the regulations.

General Provisions

In general terms, PUWER regulations require that equipment used at work must be:

- Suitable for intended use.
- Used by persons who have had received the appropriate training.
- Accompanied or incorporates suitable health and safety warnings or safety measures.
- Safe for use - equipment should be maintained in a safe condition and in certain circumstances inspected to ensure this.
- Able to have maintenance work carried out without exposing the person carrying this out to risk of danger.
- Designed so that breakdown or damage of the control systems will not result in danger to the operator.
- designed to prevent any risk of fire, over-heating, discharge of gas, dust or other substance, explosion or contact with electricity.

Main Provisions

The employer must ensure that:

- Measures are in place to minimise risk.
- Only fully trained personnel should only be allowed to use equipment where there is a specific risk.
- Work equipment provided is suitable, maintained and used without risk.

The employee does not have specific duties under PUWER, but should:

- Advise the relevant parties of unsafe equipment.
- Ensure that their own and their colleagues equipment are treated with care.
