Motor Age ,1907 The London Underground Serial Killer Geoff Platt,2015-04-30 The story is now thirty years old and most if not all of the characters involved were middle aged men at the time and are now dead The story did make the national press when it first occurred A murder in a Police Station is big news and something to beat the Police with However when it was found that 12 people had been pushed under underground trains in London by a man that they did not know the government felt that it might lead to mass hysteria and put a lid on the story with the press The officers involved were a small select cadre of elite Flying Squad and Serious Crime Squad officers from South London the same ones who had been dealing with the Krays Richardsons Brinks Mat etc Their methods were unorthodox and recorded in the best selling Untouchables book They were several extreme and unusual and certainly unorthodox tactics Officers kidnapped senior Home Office officials and detained them until the Old Bailey judge issued a summons and threatened a warrant in 5 minutes At the committal the judge prosecution defence and everybody had to step over the start witness and he vomitted on the judge s shoes Witnesses being murdered Other witnesses being locked up in secret cells to protect them from being murdered The Attorney General was satisfied that there was convincing evidence of all 16 murders that Kelly admitted He was in prison for thirty years with only one or two days between sentences and all the murders coincided with his absences from prison and before his next arrest. When protected by Police most had been witnessed. In 12 cases Kelly had presented himself to Police as a star witness who had been talking to the poor depressed man about his unfaithful wife when the train arrived at the station and he jumped underneath it. The widow eventually lost her husband, her reputation when Kelly's story was told to the coroner and her insurance money when the death was ruled to be suicide. The AG authorised five murders to be charged and instructed that prosecutions were to be discontinued and the remaining charges left on file as soon as two convictions were secured as further prosecutions would not be in the public interest due to their expense. Ford Transit Peter
