

7.3 Protecting Biodiversity

Key Concepts

-  Nations can pass laws and sign international treaties that protect biodiversity.
-  Species Survival Plans manage, protect, and reintroduce threatened and endangered species.
-  Strategies that manage whole ecosystems and habitats, such as the hotspot approach, conservation concessions, and wildlife corridors, protect many species at once.

trademarks geographical indications copyright and trade secrets patentability rules and exclusions the extension of patent rights over progeny the meaning of essentially biotechnological processes the legal definitions of morality and ordre public in the context of animal welfare and the future of international patent law in the context of global governance theories With detailed investigation of how three major jurisdictions the European Union the United States and Canada have regulated the matter the book highlights unresolved issues in the laws dealing with animal genetic resources How do the usual principles of patent law affect ownership over animals in agriculture To what extent is patent law in accordance with neighbouring fields of regulation with relation to animal welfare How can intellectual property be used to alter stimulate or tackle developments in the realm of the conservation and promotion of biodiversity Questions like these are asked checked upon the more technical country studies and then used to put to test the adequacy of international patent regulation in a final chapter As a deeply informed overview of the arguments and discussion points this is the only book of its kind It links general discussions to the often technical and complicated patent regulations in the specific context of animal genetic resources It is sure to bring lawyers in the field closer to the policy debates and decision makers closer to the precise idiosyncrasies of patent law

New Approaches to Rhetoric Patricia A. Sullivan, Steven R. Goldzwig, 2004 New Approaches to Rhetoric provides fresh perspectives on the study of rhetoric and its ability to affect change in today's society Although traditional approaches e.g. neo-Aristotelian to the study of rhetoric have utility for the twenty-first century communication in a complex mass-mediated postmodern age calls for new critical approaches The contributors of this volume including James Darsey Kathryn M. Olson and G. Thomas Goodnight George Cheney Dana Cloud and Barry Brummett explore possibilities for bridging rhetorical studies of the past with rhetorical studies of the future The original essays invite students to join rhetorical theorists and critics in an ongoing dialogue concerning what it means to study communication in a postmodern world Divided into three Parts New Approaches to Rhetoric challenges and expands the definitions approaches and assumptions governing rhetorical scholarship Part I Rhetoric's Ethics and Values addresses in different ways a central question for the study of rhetoric today How and under what conditions will moral arguments be articulated in the 21st century Part II Rhetoric Institutions and Contexts features real-life case studies showing students the function of rhetoric in today's world Part III Rhetoric's Cultures and Ideologies encourages students to examine ideological approaches to criticism and issues associated with class race and gender Features of this volume Original never before published pieces by leading rhetorical theorists and critics including James Darsey Kathryn Olson and G. Thomas Goodnight George Cheney Dana Cloud and Marouf Hasian and John M. Murphy and Thomas R. Burkholder among others Each part opens with a brief introduction to frame discussion for students Topics and case studies will appeal to students and scholars e.g. film Disney political keynote addresses autobiography labor union discourse Barry Brummett's Conclusion speculates on what the collection suggests about rhetoric in the 21st century and offers ideas to guide students as they contemplate the future of rhetorical studies New Approaches to

Rhetoric is ideal for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in Rhetoric and in Political Communication in departments of Communication English and Political Science This book is suitable for use as either a primary or supplemental course text and will be invaluable as a general reference for scholars of rhetoric social movements and public sphere studies
