One sergeant says to another, "You know I don't receive complaints from my personnel." Any sergeant who makes this statement should realize that he or she is probably seen as unapproachable

As a sergeant, you find that one person on your squad is continually getting into trouble despite your repeated efforts to train and assist him or her. This subordinate shows little regard for his or her duties or appearance, and his or her relationships with fellow officers are poor. After all attempts at positive training failed, you began a progressive discipline process of punitive measures, but nothing seems to have worked. Under the circumstances, what is the best course of action?

Recommend that he or she be dismissed from the force.

When police apprehend someone suspected of a crime, what is normally true of the suspect?

the suspect will have an irresistible urge to talk/

With regard to a valid confession of guilt, which one of the following statements is most accurate?

it is seldom sufficient by itself in proving guilt

Officer Moua is an average performing officer. On the day before she is scheduled to undergo a performance review, Officer Moua apprehends three armed gunmen as they are exiting a bank that they had just robbed. When completing Officer Moua's review, Sergeant Hall recalls the previous day's heroics and gives Officer Moua exceptional ratings in every category based upon her performance during the bank robbery. Sergeant Hall committed the rating error known as
