New Selected Stories:

Selected Stories Volume Two Alice Munro, 2021 Covering the second half of Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro's career these are some of the best most touching and powerful short stories ever written Munro is still one of our most fearless explorers of the human being The Times Spanning her last five collections and bringing together her finest work from the past fifteen years this new selection of Alice Munro's stories infuses everyday lives with a wealth of nuance and insight Beautifully observed and remarkably crafted written with emotion and empathy these stories are nothing short of perfection A masterclass in the genre from an author who deservedly lays claim to being one of the major fiction writers of our time

New and Selected Stories Cristina Rivera Garza, 2022-04-12 A story collection drawn from across her career brings into English for the first time the extraordinary stylistic and thematic range of the Mexican writer and MacArthur genius Cristina Rivera Garza One of Mexico's greatest living writers wrote Jonathan Lethem in 2018 about Cristina Rivera Garza we are just barely beginning to catch up to what she has to offer In the years since Rivera Garza's work has received widespread recognition She was awarded a MacArthur Genius Grant for fiction that interrogates culturally constructed notions of language memory and gender from a transnational perspective and was a finalist for the 2020 National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism Yet we have still only started to discover the full range of a writer who is at once an incisive voice on migration borders and violence against women as well as a high stylist in the manner of Lispector or Duras New and Selected Stories now brings together in English translation stories from across Rivera Garza's career drawing from three collections spanning over 30 years and including new writing not yet published in Spanish It is a unique and remarkable body of work and a window into the ever evolving stylistic and thematic development of one of the boldest most original and affecting writers in the world today Selected Stories

Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2011-06 Dark weird psychologically complex Hawthorne's short fiction continues to fascinate readers Brenda Wineapple has made a generous selection of Hawthorne's stories including some of his best known tales as well as other less often anthologized gems In her introduction she explores a writer whose best stories as Wineapple has elsewhere observed penetrate the secret horrors of ordinary life those interstices in the general routine where suddenly something or someone shifts out of place changing everything The John Harvard Library edition reproduces the authoritative texts of Hawthorne's stories in The Centenary Edition of the Works of Nathaniel Hawthorne Selected Stories

Franz Kafka, 2024-05-21 Selected Stories by Franz Kafka offers new renderings of the author's finest work Mark Harman's English translations convey the uniqueness of Kafka's German the wit irony and cadence Expert annotations illuminate Kafka's cultural allusions and wordplay while a biographical introduction places the man and his work in historical context Selected Stories

Amy Witting, 2017-05-01 Amy Witting was a master of the short story the genre in which she felt most at home Her subjects childhood and school marriage and loneliness the cruelty of men and women are rendered in a crisp understated style at once compassionate and unsentimental This new selection of twenty pieces from across five decades includes the acclaimed novella length The Survivors and the final appearance of Isobel Callaghan from I for Isobel. Amy Witting was born in Annandale, an inner suburb of Sydney in 1918. She attended Sydney University then taught French and English in state schools. Beginning late in life she published six novels including The Visit, I for Isobel, Isobel on the Way to the Corner Shop and Maria's War, two collections of short stories, two books of verse Travel Diary and Beauty Is the Straw and her Collected Poems. She had numerous poems and short stories published in magazines such as Quadrant and the New Yorker. Witting was awarded the 1993 Patrick White Prize. Isobel on the Way to the Corner Shop won the Age Book of the Year Award. Amy Witting died in 2001. Brilliant distillations tinged with latent tenderness. New York Times.

O. Henry was the pen name of William Sydney Porter, an American author known for his exceptional talent in crafting short stories. Born in 1862, O. Henry's unique writing style and ability to weave compelling narratives earned him widespread recognition during his lifetime. His works, including the stories found in Selected Stories of O. Henry, The Trimmed Lamp, and Other Stories of the Four Million and Sixes and Sevens, continue to be cherished for their timeless appeal and enduring popularity.

Selected Stories Katherine Mansfield, 2002. I was jealous of her writing. The only writing I have ever been jealous of Virginia Woolf. Virginia Woolf was not the only writer to admire Mansfield's work. Thomas Hardy, D. H. Lawrence, and Elizabeth Bowen all praised her stories, and her early death at the age of thirty-four cut short one of the finest short story writers in the English language. This selection covers the full range of Mansfield's fiction, from her early satirical stories to the subtly nuanced comedy of The Daughters of the Late Colonel and the macabre and ominous A Married Man's Story. The stories that pay what Mansfield calls a debt of love to New Zealand are as sharply etched as the European stories, and she recreates her childhood world with mordant insight. Disruption is a constant theme, whether the tone is comic, tragic, nostalgic, or domestic, echoing Mansfield's disrupted life and the fractured expressions of Modernism. This new edition increases the selection from 27 to 33 stories and prints them in the order in which they first appeared in the definitive texts established by Anthony Alpers.

Selected Stories Alphonse Daudet, 1901 The Collected Stories of Mavis Gallant Mavis Gallant, 2016-08-09 This generous collection of fifty-two stories selected from across her prolific career by the author includes a preface in which she discusses the sources of her art. A widely admired master of the short story, Mavis Gallant was a Canadian-born writer who lived in France and died in 2014 at the age of ninety-one. Her more than one hundred stories, most published in The New Yorker over five decades beginning in 1951, have influenced generations of writers and earned her comparisons to Anton Chekhov, Henry James, and George Eliot. She has been hailed by Michael Ondaatje as one of the great story writers of our time. With irony and an unfailing eye for the telling detail, Gallant weaves stories of spare complexity, often pushing the boundaries of the form in boldly unconventional directions. The settings in The Collected Stories range from Paris to Berlin to Switzerland, from the Italian Riviera to the Côte d'Azur, and her characters are almost all exiles of one sort or another, as she herself was for most of her expatriate life. The wit and precision of her prose, combined with her expansive view of humanity, provide a rare and deep reading pleasure. With breathtaking control and compression, Gallant delivers a whole life, a whole world, in each story.

The Children in the Woods Frederick Busch, 1994 Recipient of the 1991 PEN/Malamud Award for excellence in the short story, Frederick Busch confirms his achievement in this unsettling and affecting collection of new and selected stories. Like Hansel and Gretel, the characters in The Children in the Woods are concerned with survival in the subtle playing out of this dark fairy tale. Busch makes palpable the themes of love, loss, alienation, and disillusionment. In Critics, it is the hierarchy of familial relationships that isolates an only child. In The Settlement of Mars, a young boy's first recognition of the adult world is a frightening and disorienting experience. In My Father Cont, a child fantasizes he will be abandoned by his bickering parents, and in Folk Tales, a man's reappraisal of his life is catalyzed by the discovery of old correspondence in his mother's safe deposit box after she dies. In all of these stories, Busch is a master at exposing the vulnerability that resonates in each of the characters. As Shelby Hearon proclaimed in the New York Times Book Review of Absent Friends, Busch's most recent collection, "These stories hit us where we live alone." Busch's previous collections of stories and his highly acclaimed novels Closing Arguments and Long Way from Home have established his reputation as a writer of powerful literary fiction The distillation of twenty years of story collections by Frederick Busch The Children in the Woods is further testimony to the integrity and distinction of his work Containing eight previously uncollected stories The Children in the Woods is an opportunity for both old fans and those newly acquainted with his work to celebrate this remarkable writer BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Top Books of the Year New Selected Stories The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. New Selected Stories : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
