 Kayden, The New York City Department of City Planning, The Municipal Art Society of New York, 2000-11-10 Hailed by the Wall Street Journal as a juicy little time bomb of a book Privately Owned Public Space The New York City Experience examines for the first time New York City's 39 year mixed experience with the production of more than 500 plazas parks and atriums located on private property yet by law accessible to and usable by the public Until now comprehensive systematic knowledge about this vast collection of public spaces has not existed either for experts or members of the public To remedy this gap Harvard University professor Jerold S Kayden The New York City Department of City Planning and The Municipal Art Society of New York have joined forces to research and write Privately Owned Public Space The New York City Experience Through words photographs scaled site plans maps and analysis of newly assembled data they examine history law design and use of the city's privately owned public spaces Each of the more than 500 spaces is individually discussed to provide far reaching comparative information about this unique category of public space In reading this book designers planners lawyers and academics will gain greater understanding about the possibilities and problems inherent in the design management and enforcement of privately owned public space Public officials private owners and civic group representatives will learn more about their roles in ensuring public access and vitality of such spaces Individuals will discover where New York City's public spaces are located and what amenities they offer Everyone will comprehend more completely the contribution that privately owned public space can make toward open and attractive cities in which all individuals have access to a diversity of public places New York Magazine ,1972-05-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
