Flying with Crows Tracy Amos, 2015-02-20 Kyler is back with another heartbreaking story of addiction and love She finds herself caught up in Josh's fidelity issues while trying to help Mike through a horrible time of addiction and borderline insanity With the help of her closest friends and family they bind together to give amazing amounts of strength and faith and throughout everything each of them finds his and her own ways to endure and sustain Family is not always about blood and never has this been made so clear to Kyler and Josh as they work through their own problems and find home and family and love all over again Through terror fear pain and distrust emerges beautiful peace and once again calm serenity in the form of support and unerring strength Family is not always about blood Beyond Self-Care Potato Chips Amber Wardell, 2024-10-29 From a cognitive psychologist a trusted voice among millennial women a call to action for readers everywhere to enter their true self care era that will nourish and sustain them Toxic self care culture tells women that bubble baths and Botox are the route to happiness and fulfillment Though these types of self care can fill us up in the moment they cannot provide long lasting nourishment They are empty calories the potato chips of self care And from them we can never get full In the same way we will not feel fulfilled by reaching for the empty calorie self care trends that toxic materialistic self care culture sells us To fill our exhausted bodies and weary minds to live fully and authentically we need the kind of self care that nourishes Beyond Self Care Potato Chips is a call to action for women everywhere to reach instead for nourishing self care Though this may sound easy in theory many women struggle to carry it out We struggle because we have forgotten how to reach Our training as little girls taught us that it is polite to be grateful for what we get To say thank you but I'm full when offered second helpings To accept the potato chips we are given because there are people on this planet who have none so how dare we ask for more Through the narrative voice of a psychologist who is also an exhausted millennial mom trying to keep it all together Beyond Self Care Potato Chips explores courageous self care in the areas of marriage motherhood family dynamics friendships career life and mental health The author's personal stories range from the hilariously yet painfully relatable to the resonantly heart rending Each of these stories the beautiful the sparkling the sad and the chaotic teach women something about what it means to reach What it means to stop settling for potato chips and to instead grasp for the things that truly fulfill Beyond Self Care Potato Chips is a mindset a way of embracing and stepping into all of our divine feminine power Outing Magazine Poultney Bigelow, James Henry Worman, Ben James Worman, Caspar Whitney, Albert Britt, 1906 Unseen-Unheard Amity Pierce Buxton, R. L. Pinely, 2013-06 When presumably heterosexual spouses turn out to be gay lesbian bisexual or transgender the unexpected revelation overshadows its devastating impact on their straight wives and husbands Unseen Unheard opens the window on their remarkable journeys from trauma to transformation What would you do if your husband said he'd fallen in love with a man or thinks he might be gay or bisexual or you discovered your wife's texts photos or emails indicating she has a female lover and wonders if she might be lesbian or bisexual Well this happens a shattering reality that at least two million men and women have faced and tried to understand and accept even as we were unseen and our voices unheard Who are we We are husbands and wives left behind when our spouses came out or after we discovered they were gay lesbian bisexual or transgender Shocked and paralyzed swirling in the devastating wake of our beloveds revelation we had to pick up unrecognizable pieces of our former lives and try to reconfigure them without much outside support recognition or understanding of the depth of the crisis Yes straight spouses typically cope alone with unique issues of sexuality betrayal and broken belief systems Slowly we redefine ourselves create new lives affirm the joy of living and reap life s infinite possibilities We invite you to walk with us and experience our journey from the first desperate cries of discovery or disclosure to insights and wisdom gained as we resolve our issues and transform our lives As you observe and listen we hope you will embrace the courage creativity and resilience of our strength which we didn t know we had yet was so powerful that lifelong habits were broken and we uniquely and marvelously became who we were meant to be About the Authors Amity Pierce Buxton her Ph D from Columbia University has taught grades pre school through graduate school Member of the American Psychological Association she serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of Bisexuality and the Journal of GLBT Family Studies and on the board of the Catholic Association for Gay and Lesbian Ministry She wrote The Other Side of the Closet the Coming Out Crisis for Straight Spouses and Families and founded the worldwide Straight Spouse Network Currently she counsels spouses and couples conducts research writes articles and chapters lectures and gives workshops on all aspects of the impact of a spouse s coming out in a mixed orientation or transgender non transgender marriage R L Pinely writes Collaborating with Amity to write this book has been an amazing journey Absorbing her expertise has been a rare privilege as we lived vicariously through the lives of others and walked in their shoes As owner of an online support group I m so thankful that I have the opportunity every day to pass along her wisdom insight experience and understanding to nearly 3 000 women Visit the Straight Spouse Network website www.straightspouse.org
