

Four Pillars of NHS: Scholarship, Character, Leadership, Service Abilities

It is an accomplishment for me to be applying to the National Honor Society. I believe that my teachers and other staff members in the school have seen potential in me that they have seen before in order for me to be chosen to be a candidate for such an influential association. Their faith in me demonstrates that I have proved that I continue to have my determination, ambition and ability to help other people and help the community. I truly believe that I would become a valuable member of the national honor society, because I believe that I have all the required qualities, such as scholarship, character, leadership, and service abilities. I am hardworking as well as someone who is dependable.

The four pillars of national honors society means to me to become a leader in many ways because of the many diverse leadership position roles. One of the leadership positions I take part in is peer mediation, which provides the ability to interact with many students, get shown the challenges that students face with each other and find methods to solve the issues. I am also privileged to lead multiple committees and am providing them with tough decisions that determine the success of the class and events. The challenges and solutions I face have prepared my leadership abilities. If admitted as an NHS member, I believe that will gain more skills to further initiate my achievements and personally progress my leadership skills.

Scholarship to me is a balance between showing your Leadership and how it must then be put in order, to make sure that an accomplished outcome is complete. I have always strived to be a good scholar and achieve remarkable leadership skills. Personally I know that it's difficult to maintain a balance between scholarship and leadership, but with commitment and perseverance, everything begins to fall into place. As an NHS member, I will still maintain my good grades and continue to engage myself in community and school leadership.

The school community as well as many other communities benefit from individuals with the dedication for giving voluntary service. Being someone that takes on many leadership roles in our school has made me provide a role to the school community on how to take care of the school environment. By being frequently involved in giving back to the community through some of the services that are provided, it helps the community to be prepared in advance and to avoid anything that is unexpected. Joining the NHS will help me to transform my school's community by continuing with the skills and work that is put out there.

Character is the main pillar that connects all four together. With no character it is ineffective to be a good scholar, leader and show service only to demonstrate it with bad character. Character is significant if you want the school community to respect you and take you seriously as well as cherish your work and your traits. By joining the NHS, I believe it will further i

Nhs Leadership Character Four Essay:

Leadership for Healthcare Hartley, Jean, Benington, John, 2010-03-24 Is leadership just a fashion that is blowing through the healthcare sector and will blow out again Is it just new fancy language to describe what has always happened in hospitals surgeries and schools across the land The authors think not and there are many reasons why leadership across the organization and across healthcare networks needs to be taken seriously Clear and convincing with practical applications Leadership for Healthcare includes a systematic literature review of the academic and policy literature of healthcare leadership in the UK in the last 10 years The book provides an evidence based framework which synthesizes the literature from health services management and business It draws out lessons for policy practice and future research in the area of leadership in healthcare and it provides a clear road map of the terrain of leadership which will help to avoid some of the pitfalls fallacies and fantasies about leadership My Life of Ministry, Writing, Teaching, and Traveling Mark G.

Boyer, 2021-02-04 In My Life of Ministry Writing Teaching and Traveling The Autobiography of an Old Mines Missionary I present my life as a child growing up in a French village about sixty miles south of St Louis in the middle of the twentieth century After eighteen years of life in Old Mines the oldest settlement in the state of Missouri I moved to St Louis for four years and then to St Meinrad Indiana for four years where education opened my eyes to a world very much larger than my village of origin Life continued for me after ordination as a priest in the Roman Catholic Church in Springfield and Joplin Missouri Because my life is the thread stitching together this book I have made it manageable by dividing it into four categories ministry writing teaching and travel These categories contain the stories of others whose life threads of seventy years are woven into my lifetime tapestry This is my autobiography one of a missionary from Old Mines to the thirty nine counties forming the southern third of the state of Missouri composed during my seventieth year of life Developing Leadership Christopher Mabey, Wolfgang Mayrhofer, 2015-06-18 What kind of a leader do you want to become The role of business schools in developing future managers and leaders has long been scrutinised and critiqued This has been exacerbated by the recent financial crisis and many books have been written that condemn business schools for producing leaders who graduate without the ability to respond to the changing world around them innovate or act in a responsible way By way of remedy this provocative book takes the critique and debate further proposing a number of ethical and spiritual resources including Heiggarian philosophy classical Greek philosophy and the Maori notion of wairua It explores existing teaching practices and suggests ways that business schools can Encourage a greater understanding of different world views Introduce different perspectives such as the arts philosophy and spirituality Encourage the practice of responsible and ethical leadership Nurture innovation and creativity Developing Leadership is accompanied by filmed seminars exploring the central debates and interviews with the expert team of contributors A rare thing this book gives more than the label promises The title is about questions yet each chapter gives us answers to why important issues are not addressed in business schools and what to do about it This is a manifesto for reform and the next big question is what will you reader do about it Professor Jonathan Gosling Director Centre for Leadership Studies University of Exeter UK and Distinguished Visiting Professor of Leadership Development INSEAD France Alfred North Whitehead on Learning and Education Franz G. Riffert,2005 In this book a selection of 15 papers explores Whitehead s educational ideas which are based on his radical process approach Following the Introduction which presents Whitehead s criticism of traditional education and the false psychology which it is based on the book is divided into two major parts The first part deals with Whitehead s philosophically inspired alternative theoretical framework for learning and education Special focus is layed on the concept of the learning process which according to Whitehead is essentially cyclic in nature In the second part it is shown how Whitehead s ideas can profitably be applied to different sub domains within education management education college education and evaluation <http://www.cambridgescholarspress.com> EBOOK: Leadership and Change for the Health Professional Elizabeth A. Curtis,John Cullen,2017-06-16 Leadership and Change for the Health Professional will provide health professionals with the latest thinking on leadership theory and research It highlights the issues that can block successful healthcare leadership initiatives and explores ways of constructively engaging with the opportunities provided by change Each chapter draws out practical lessons for effective and efficient leadership of care that is compassionate and safe Leaders and students at all levels will be able to use this book to expand their leadership repertoire in a text that engages with many themes including The basics of leadership and the idea of leadership as a calling Motivating employees Implicit leadership theory Developing trust Building learning organisations Gender and equality Planning and organising change in healthcare Leading change The links between the theory and practice of healthcare leadership are skilfully explored with examples of research implemented in practice and the textbook further equips your study with helpful summaries and suggestions for further reading This is essential reading for all healthcare professionals in clinical practice as well as students studying or engaged in research on health care management and leadership With a foreword by Thomas Garavan Edinburgh Napier Business School UK Amongst the vast number of leadership texts published every year this book stands out It has been edited with considerable care by two highly respected scholars in the field to make it accessible to all those interested in and practising leadership whether healthcare professionals or students It is well organised and moves seamlessly to address many important questions about the nature of leadership including important questions of ethics gender trust motivation innovation teams and distributed leadership The final section focuses on leading change in healthcare a critical element of leadership practice in today s world Too many leadership books ignore context This book however is firmly rooted in the healthcare context and aspires to help professionals in this sector to reflect deeply on the complexities of leading through uncertain times Whilst each chapter stands alone the book s merit is in offering multiple perspectives Curtis and Cullen have encouraged the book s contributors to address the big debates and themes in healthcare leadership today whilst keeping in sharp focus the practice of leadership

Sharon Turnbull Visiting Professor Lancaster University Management School UK In Leadership and Change for the Health Professional Elizabeth Curtis and John Cullen have crafted an exceptionally timely collection of practically based research insights As global healthcare systems face disruptive and often uncomfortable forces for change this book tackles complex topics that health leaders must understand While oriented toward generative practice and creative leadership skills Curtis and Cullen do not shy away from engaging with controversial aspects of leadership development such as bias gendered practice or even clinical failure making it a valuable resource for educators and practitioners alike Accessible and lively Leadership and Change for the Health Professional is a successful blend of current issues with a visionary future Kathy Lund Dean Board of Trustees Distinguished Professor of Leadership Ethics Gustavus Adolphus College USA Curtis and Cullen bring together a comprehensive overview of leadership from its historical development up to its role within the current healthcare context presented by a variety of scholars The particular challenges and demands faced by leaders and those who aspire to lead are discussed within and it addresses the many facets of leadership approaches Anyone interested in the development of leadership and change will find this particularly stimulating and a valuable text for academic and students alike Alison H James School of Healthcare Sciences Cardiff University UK This book covers many aspects of leadership which are timely in nature and directly relevant to health professionals The contributors are highly respected and offer different perspectives on this complex issue We need to encourage practitioners to see themselves as leaders this evidence based text will serve to guide them in this quest De emphasising the individual leadership qualities and including those of teams makes this book stand out from others The NHS features prominently but despite this readers from other countries should be able to easily transfer the content to their own health services The useful websites at the end of each chapter provide further direction for readers This is a text that is written with a very positive stance even though the difficulties of being a leader are not ignored It ends with a discussion on the vision for leadership at individual team and organisational levels Lots to read absorb and you can do this a chapter at a time which is great Professor Bridie Kent Head of School of Nursing and Midwifery Plymouth University UK This book addresses an important topic where there is huge scope to add value This is partly due to the scale of the NHS The language makes the text accessible to professionals as well as academics It is also good to see that the issue of learning organisations is addressed as well as impact of leadership on patients Professor John G Burgoyne Lancaster University Management School UK Leadership and Change for the Health Professional is a timely and authoritative academic and professional exposition of the challenges for clinicians and healthcare managers in carrying out their management roles in our modern medical and healthcare systems Its focus on change is both apt and relevant in the context of the dynamic development of our healthcare structures Niamh Brennan Michael MacCormac Professor of Management University College Dublin The College Blue Book Huber William Hurt, Harriet-Jeanne Hurt, 2002
