Welcome to Writing Workshop Lynne Dorfman, Stacey Shubitz, 2023-10-10 Stacey Shubitz and Lynne Dorfman welcome you to experience the writing workshop for the first time or in a new light with Welcome to Writing Workshop. Engaging today's students with a model that works through strategic routines, tips, resources, and short focused video clips, teachers can create the sights and sounds of a thriving writing workshop where both students and teachers are working authors. Students spend most of their time writing, not just learning about it. Student choice is encouraged to help create engaged writers, not compliant ones. Students are part of the formative assessment process. Students will look forward to writing time, not dread it. From explanations of writing process and writing traits to small group strategy lessons and mini lessons, this book will provide the know-how to feel confident and comfortable in the teaching of writers. Teaching Children to Write Daniel R. Meier, 2015-04-17 In his latest book, Daniel Meier highlights the critical importance of integrating content and mechanics for successful and engaged writing at the K-4 level. Featuring the teaching philosophies and strategies of seven exemplary teachers and a discussion of relevant research and theory, Meier provides a fresh, practical, and much-needed perspective on making writing meaningful and effective in the current standards-based era. Written by an experienced teacher and researcher, this book will be of interest to both new and veteran teachers, as well as curriculum coordinators, literacy coaches, and researchers on writing. The Vulnerable Heart of Literacy Elizabeth Dutro, 2019-08-23 What is trauma, and what does it mean for the literacy curriculum? In this book, elementary teachers will learn how to approach difficult experiences through the everyday instruction and interactions in their classrooms. Readers will look inside classrooms and literacies across genres to see what can unfold when teachers are committed to compassionate, critical, and relational practice. Weaving her own challenging experiences into chapters brimming with children's writing and voices, Dutro emphasizes that issues of power and privilege matter centrally to how attention to trauma positions children. The book includes questions and prompts for discussion, reflection, and practice, and describes pedagogies and strategies designed to provide opportunities for children to bring the varied experiences of life, including trauma, to their school literacies, especially their writing, in positive, meaningful, and supported ways. Book Features: Offers a reconceptualization of trauma as a source of connection, reciprocity, knowledge, and literacy engagement; identifies three key tenets that teachers can follow to ensure that children's experiences and perspectives are honored; shares classroom stories and literacy lessons, including many examples of children's writing; includes sum-up reflections and discussion prompts; provides up-to-date lists of resources. Writing Instruction for English Learners Eugenia Mora-Flores, 2008-10-29 Focusing on narrative, expository, and persuasive writing and poetry, this guide provides strategies and tools to facilitate writing development for English learners in Grades 2-8. Evaluating Children's Writing Suzanne Bratcher, Linda Ryan, 2003-09-12 Introduces statement from preface about application activities for a wide range of writing evaluation strategies elementary classroom teachers can use to determine a
