Personal Narrative Prompts About Immigration:

Personal narratives of Irish and Scottish migration, 1921-65 Angela McCarthy, 2017-10-03 Between 1921 and 1965 Irish and Scottish migrants continued to seek new homes abroad Using the personal accounts of these migrants from letters interviews questionnaires and shipboard journals together with more traditional documentary sources such as immigration files and maritime records this book examines the experience of migration and settlement in North America and Australasia Through a close reading of personal testimonies the author highlights the assorted similarities and differences between the Irish and Scots Subtle differences rather than yawning cultural gaps are apparent similarities in attitude and expectation are more common than divergent or unique experiences The key revelation of the work is that despite a number of peculiarities characterising their individual and collective experiences of migration both the Irish and Scots were relatively successful migrants in the period under consideration Using interviews both spoken and written and tackling issues of why and how versions of the past are represented and what they mean this fascinating study considers individual and collective memory and the use of personal testimonies as historical evidence their uniqueness and typicality Furthermore in using personal narratives the book portrays individual migration experiences which are often hidden in studies based on statistical analysis

Migration and Identity through Creative Writing Alka Kumar, Anna Triandafyllidou, 2023-10-03 This open access book brings together storytelling and self narrative creative writing and narrative enquiry to explore a variety of topics in migration from an experiential lens The volume is hybrid and multi genre as it contains both scholarly chapters grounded in academic perspectives as well as personal essays and creative non fiction In addition to critical reflections on key migration topics and concepts like identity and diversity integration and agency transnationalism and return the scholarly chapters also propose a particular methodology for workshopping migration narratives and writing about personal lived experiences through iterations of scientific reflection narrative enquiry and creative imagination The book explores the potential of a new conceptual paradigm and methodological process to learn more and also differently about the migration experience Finally this volume asks a bigger question too how do we define the boundaries of research is it possible to entirely separate the spatial temporal and methodological parameters in which projects are developed and pursued and how can the specifics of these multiple contexts contribute to shaping the knowledge being produced

Narrative Writing with Latinx Teens Carla España, 2024-12-30 How can we create writing instruction that allows Latine youth to desahogarse where writing is a release How can we learn more about Latinx youth and the issues that matter to them so that we can all reimagine a better world In Narrative Writing with Latinx Teens Testimonios Texts and Teaching Dr Carla España introduces the Writing for Desahogo Teaching Framework a foundation for twenty writing lessons that immerse students in texts on topics that include immigration mental health language resilience and community to facilitate their discussions and writing Inspired by research with Latinx teens and young adults Dr España bookends each chapter with the words of Latinx youth and testimonios by Latinx educators while inviting teachers to share in the vulnerability of writing to heal with her own creative writing expanding on these topics Poems and narratives give readers a lens into Dr Espa a s particular experience while setting up teacher and student text sets as entry points into the topic of study Each chapter s lesson sequences include four text types for study Multimedia introduction Poetry immersion Middle grade literature Young adult literature Narrative Writing with Latinx Teens is a weaving of Dr Espa a s teaching in different settings with Latinx teens in middle grade classrooms and presently in the Department of Puerto Rican and Latinx Studies at Brooklyn College It s reimaged writing workshops meets Ethnic Studies Ultimately this book invites educators to consider the complexity of the Latinx diaspora dispel myths of Latinidad and consider the ways we can create spaces for the writers in our midst to feel like they can flourish in their criticality and in their joy With a foreword by award winning author arts activist and translator Aida Salazar Narrative Writing with Latinx Teens calls us to grow in our courage curiosity and criticality following the examples of the youth and creators of Latin American descent it features and celebrates

Conrad Kim Salmons, Tania Zulli, 2021-07-29 Examining the notion of migration and transnationalism within the life and work of Joseph Conrad this book situates the multicultural and transnational characters that comprise his fiction while locating Conrad as a subject of the Russian state whose provenance is Polish but whose identity is that of a merchant sailor and English country gentleman Conrad's characters are often marked by crossings changes of nation changes of culture changes of identity which refract Conrad's own cultural transitions These crossings not only subjectivise the experience of the migrant through the modern complexities of technology and speed but also through cross cultural encounters of food and language Collectively these essays explore the experience of the migrant as exile the inescapable intermeshing of migration modernity and transnationalism as well as Conrad's own global and multicultural outlook Conrad's work writes across historical political and ethnic borders speaking to a transnational reality that continues to have relevance today Insider

Research on Migration and Mobility Lejla Voloder, Liudmila Kirpitchenko, 2016-05-23 With an increasing proportion of migration and mobility field studies being conducted by migrants and members of ethnic minorities in home contexts the implications of insider research are increasingly subject critical scrutiny Researchers who may share migration experiences or cultural ethnic linguistic or religious identities with their participants are exploring the means ethics and politics of mobilizing insider capital for the purpose of gaining access to and representing research participants Bringing together the latest international scholarship in the sociology and anthropology of migration this volume explores the complexities joys and frustrations of conducting insider research The book offers analyses of key methodological ethical and epistemological challenges faced by migration researchers as they question the ways in which they come to identify with their research topic or their participants Addressing questions of identity and categorization ethics and methodology epistemology and situated knowledge Insider Research on Migration and Mobility will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in migration mobilities diaspora studies and ethnic and racial identities as well as those interested in qualitative research design and analysis

Immigrant Experiences Paul H. Elovitz, Charlotte Kahn, 1997 This book gives powerful testimony to the possibilities of success even as it attests to the psychological costs of emigration and the struggles of immigration The necessity of creating a new cultural or national identity is a recurring theme as the authors of articles immigrants themselves and Americans sensitive to their families immigrant experiences address what has become an urgent question How can we facilitate the immigrants passage The U S culture has been forged by the influence of immigrant cultures too numerous to mention their representatives have made recognizable significant contributions while struggling to create a viable place for themselves in their adopted land

Writing Elena L. Grigorenko, Elisa Mambrino, David D. Preiss, 2012-05-04 This book captures the diversity and richness of writing as it relates to different forms of abilities skills competencies and expertise Psychologists educators researchers and practitioners in neighboring areas are interested in exploring how writing develops and in what manner this development can be fostered but they lack a handy unified and comprehensive source of information to satisfy their interest The goal of this book is to fill this void by reflecting on the phenomenon of writing from a developmental perspective It contains an integrated set of chapters devoted to issues of writing how writing develops how it is and should be taught and how writing paths of development differ across writing genres Specifically the book addresses typologies of writing pathways of the development of writing skills stages of the development of writing individual differences in the acquisition of writing skills writing ability and disability teaching writing and the development and demonstration of expertise in writing

Migrant Aesthetics Glenda R. Carpio, 2023-10-31 Co winner 2024 Matei Calinescu Prize Modern Language Association By most accounts immigrant literature deals primarily with how immigrants struggle to adapt to their adopted countries Its readers have come to expect stories of identity formation of how immigrants create ethnic communities and maintain ties to countries of origin Yet such narratives can center exceptional stories of individual success or obscure the political forces that uproot millions of people the world over Glenda R Carpio argues that we need a new paradigm for migrant fiction Migrant Aesthetics shows how contemporary authors Teju Cole Dinaw Mengestu Aleksandar Hemon Valeria

Luiselli Julie Otsuka and Junot Diaz expose the historical legacies and political injustices that produce forced migration through artistic innovation Their fiction rejects the generic features of immigrant literature especially the acculturation plot and the use of migrant narrators as cultural guides who must appeal to readerly empathy They emphasize the limits of empathy insisting instead that readers recognize their own roles in the realities of migration which like climate change is driven by global inequalities Carpio traces how these authors create literary echoes of the past showing how the history of neo colonialism links distinct immigrant experiences and can lay the foundation for cross ethnic migrant solidarity Revealing how migration shapes and is shaped by language and narrative Migrant Aesthetics casts fiction as vital testimony to past and present colonial imperial and structural displacement and violence
