Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1998 Making British Defence Policy Robert Self, 2022-06-16 This book explores the process by which defence policy is made in contemporary Britain and the institutions actors and conflicting interests which interact in its inception and continuous reformulation Rather than dealing with the substance of defence policy this study focuses upon the institutional actors involved in this process This is a subject which has commanded far more interest from public Parliament government and the armed forces since the protracted bloody and ultimately unsuccessful British military involvement in Iraq and Afghanistan The work begins with a discussion of two contextual factors shaping policy The first relates to the impact of Britain s special relationship with the United States over defence and intelligence matters while the second considers the impact of Britain s relatively disappointing economic performance upon the funding of British defence since 1945 It then goes on to explore the role and impact of all the key policy actors from the Prime Minister Cabinet and core executive to the Ministry of Defence and its relations with the broader Whitehall village and the Foreign Office and Treasury in particular The work concludes by examining the increasing influence of external policy actors and forces such as Parliament the courts political parties pressure groups and public opinion This book will be of much interest to students of British defence policy security studies and contemporary military history The Directory of U.S. Trademarks ,1992 The Compu-mark Directory of U.S. Trademarks ,1991
