Police Chief Assessment Center Guide:

Police Assessment Center Exam Training Guide Alfred Donovan, 2019-10-21 Our Police Assessment Center Exam Training Guide 3rd Edition 2020 was written entirely by Chief Alfred P. Donovan. Chief Donovan has written Assessment Center Test exercises for dozens of Assessment Center promotional tests conducted by numerous police departments. Chief Donovan has also acted as Assessment Center Test administrator and evaluator on numerous occasions. Chief Donovan knows what types of exercises you are likely to face and he knows the response your department is looking for and he shares them with you in this manual. The Assessment Center Handbook for Police and Fire Personnel (4th Ed.) Charles D. Hale, 2019-02-06 Assessment centers continue to be widely used as the preferred and accepted manner of evaluating potential members of police and fire departments as a part of their standardized promotional examination process. This third edition of this most successful book expands upon the concepts and principles of the first two editions and introduces new innovations. Chapters have been extensively edited and reformatted. New sections have been added covering the tactical EMS problem and public education exercises. An entirely new chapter, Best Practices in Assessment Center Exercises, provides many examples of how candidates can achieve superior performance in many different kinds of assessment exercises. An additional new section offers opportunities for incorporating advancing technologies in assessment center programs. The text continues to offer invaluable insight concerning the reliability, cost effectiveness, and objective methods for the selection of candidates for higher appointments. Reviewed are the advantages of an assessment center, typical assessment center exercises, design and administration, selection and training, candidate evaluation and scoring methods, and preparation. A substantial appendix provides many valuable resource tools, including exercise plans, typical schedules, candidate evaluation and assessor feedback forms, room configurations, and feedback questionnaires. The text continues to be the authoritative source for assessment center administrators. The Assessment Center Handbook for Police and Fire Personnel Charles D. Hale, 2018-12 Over the years, the assessment center method of evaluating and selecting individuals to fill technical, supervisory, and management level positions has proven to be highly successful in municipal police and fire departments. Making Sergeant Gerald W. Garner, 2021-02-24

Whether you are just pondering if you should go for the gold or are already radar locked on getting there this book MAKING SERGEANT is for you Written by a veteran police chief with over 50 years of law enforcement experience 15 of them spent as a sergeant it contains practical advice for 1 deciding on whether you are ready for the job and 2 getting it and succeeding at it if you are Short on theory and long on pragmatic advice the text also will help the already promoted supervisor successfully meet the challenges of this complex but vital position As most law enforcement agency CEOs will acknowledge first line supervisor or sergeant is often the single most important position in the police organization Without the best efforts of the highly competent man or woman wearing the stripes the organization is destined to flounder in relative ineffectiveness In the worst case scenario the agency may fail In other words the sergeant has got to get it right This book will help you decide if you want to be that sergeant If you do it will help you be him or her If at least at this stage of your career you decide that the answer is no that's fine too There is not a law enforcement agency anywhere that has enough talented first line officers Your goals may change later But if you choose to go for it the tips contained in this book will help you get there If you are already a supervisor MAKING SERGEANT will help you get better at what you are already doing

Thin Blue Fault Line -

Policing America John C. Franklin, John F. Hein, 2021-02-22 Authors Franklin and Hein have witnessed firsthand difficulties experienced in some black communities They use their knowledge to analyze and discuss the interactions between American policing a subculture of the black community and the BLM movement The authors wrote this book not because of attacks on police officers but because of overzealous actions by officers to shoot black men It describes how blue on black shootings along with police tactics sometimes cause intense citizen responses through public statements outbursts and demonstrations It begins with an examination of the differences between the black and white communities how the same incident can be viewed from two different perspectives and how a discussion can be perceived unbiased by one but biased and unjust by another Because of civil rights efforts American policing is going through a transformation A change in policing tactics must be met with a re evaluation of some cultural norms by the black community They also discuss the lack of support by blacks shown to other blacks when there is an impression of being not black enough The authors believe in political correctness but also believe that political correctness is harming the black community because well recognized negative issues in some communities are not being addressed to avoid criticism of black culture In the final chapter the authors discuss the failure of black leadership to make any earnest effort to rescue a wanting black subculture from itself Finally the authors believe that American policing understands its 21st century obligations and is taking steps to meet them
