The United States of America , Encyclopedia of New Year's Holidays Worldwide William D. Crump, 2016-03-30 Among the world's myriad cultures and their associated calendars the idea of a New Year is relative and hardly specifies a universal celebration or even a universal point in time Ways of celebrating the New Year range from the observances of religious rituals and superstitions to social gatherings featuring particular foods music dancing noisemaking fireworks and drinking This first encyclopedia devoted exclusively to the New Year includes 320 entries that give a global perspective on the New Year beyond its traditional Western associations with Christmas National or regional entries detail the principal traditions and customs of 130 countries while 27 entries discuss major calendar systems in current use or of significant historical interest The remaining entries cover a wide variety of subjects including literary works movies and television specials the customs of specific ethnic groups universal customs such as toasting and drinking football bowl games and parades and the New Year celebrations at the White House and the Vatican The New Mahican Gerardo Antonio Perez Chan, 2023-01-03 The story of a naive undocumented Houstonian whose whole world is destroyed after an encounter with the Houston Police Department in Texas In violation of the Constitution of the United States the city of Houston's police force works with federal agencies in order to send Gerardo to a faraway land According to the United States Constitution the federal government and the state government are to remain separate entities in order to protect the rights of the people Kept in captivity for three years with no opportunity of ever getting legal status in the only place Gerardo called home As these events unfold he attempts to understand what his world has become He never loses hope that he might be released in order to continue his education and reunite with his family While in captivity Gerardo's mind makes sense of the things happening around him by turning events into mythical epics He speaks to various individuals who tell him of their hopes and dreams and watches as their spirit gets crushed daily Slowly starved by a poor diet he struggles to find a way to legitimize his existence with a racist and hostile government that he does not comprehend Having lost the ability to walk on his own Gerardo then must use the prison walls as support in order to get about Abused by his captors on a daily basis he begins to lose hope of ever seeing his family again Forced to sign a paper that waived his right to be a legitimate American Gerardo is then exiled for a hundred years by a judge just as old Who is broadcasting from another location to a television screen in a courtroom inside the concentration camp After being exiled from his home they then send Gerardo to a land that he has never known Struggling to survive Gerardo decides that even though he fears the American government he must return home in order to provide for his family Even after being so heavily persecuted Gerardo still holds on to his love for the country that destroyed his life
