fields and reinvigorating communities previously bypassed by earlier economic shifts Sketchbook Timothy O'Donnell, 2009-05-01 This book explores influential designers sketchbooks as a truer reflection of a designer's thought processes, preoccupations and problem solving strategies than can be had by simply viewing finished projects. Highly personal and idiosyncratic sketchbooks offer an arena for unstructured exploration, a space free from all budgetary and client constraints. Visually arresting objects in their own right, this book aims to elevate sketches from mere ephemera to important documents where the reader can glean valuable insight into the creative process and apply it to their own practices. Featured designers include Ralph Caplan, Nigel Holmes, Chris Bigg, Eva Jiricna, Jason Munn, Gary Baseman, Marian Bantjes and many others.

Law, Sex, and Christian Society in Medieval Europe James A. Brundage, 2009-02-15 This monumental study of medieval law and sexual conduct explores the origin and development of the Christian church's sex law and the systems of belief upon which that law rested. Focusing on the Church's own legal system of canon law, James A. Brundage offers a comprehensive history of legal doctrines covering the millennium from A.D. 500 to 1500 concerning a wide variety of sexual behavior including marital sex, adultery, homosexuality, concubinage, prostitution, masturbation and incest. His survey makes strikingly clear how the system of sexual control in a world we have half forgotten has shaped the world in which we live today. The regulation of marriage and divorce as we know it today, together with the outlawing of bigamy and polygamy and the imposition of criminal sanctions on such activities as sodomy, fellatio, cunnilingus and bestiality, are all based in large measure upon ideas and beliefs about sexual morality that became law in Christian Europe in the Middle Ages. Brundage's book is consistently learned, enormously useful and frequently entertaining. It is the best we have on the relationships between theological norms, legal principles and sexual practice.
