Tech Billionaires Lewis D. Solomon, 2017-09-08 In the first decade of the twenty first century a new wave of thinking has emerged from tech billionaires that may shape the way private capital gets invested to tackle social problems These entrepreneurs broke the business mold in the 1980s and 1990s and are now trying to break the traditional pattern of philanthropy pioneered by Andrew Carnegie and John D Rockefeller Sr some one hundred years ago Combining billions of dollars of their personal capital with new ideas cutting edge businesslike techniques media and marketing savvy the tech benefactors profiled in this book are attacking some of the globe's most intractable societal problems In trying to make a difference in the world these new philanthropists dubbed philanthrocapitalists by the author seek to break down traditional barriers dividing business charity and government As a result of the rapid wealth creation in recent years the world now boasts 1 125 billionaires many of whom are self made according to the Forbes 2008 list including Bill Gates Pierre Omidyar Jeffrey Skoll Stepehn Case Sergey Brin Larry Page and more Their massive wealth has created new philanthropic challenges Imaginative giving by the new billionaires is beginning to transform philanthropy in terms of timing involvement strategy and tactics How this development impacts society as a whole is the subject of Lewis Solomon's book As the author notes the traditional categories of business and philanthropy may no longer serve to meet the challenge of social problems In the twenty first century the tools and resources used to solve societal problems will be far more varied and mixed than previously We now see interesting partnerships and new ways of thinking The divide between profit and social good will narrow If successful in using their money in innovative ways government or for profit business could scale up the catalytic efforts of the new philanthropists This volume is a proactive innovative guide to a new era not just a new technique of monetary support

Prizing Debate Anna Auguscik, 2017-06-15 This book offers a study of the literary marketplace in the early 2000s Focusing on the Man Booker Prize and its impact on a novel's media attention Anna Auguscik analyses the mechanisms by which the Prize both recognises books that trigger debates and itself becomes the object of such debates Based on case studies of six novels by Aravind Adiga Margaret Atwood Sebastian Barry Mark Haddon DBC Pierre Zadie Smith and their attention profiles this work describes the Booker as a problem driven attention generating mechanism the influence of which can only be understood in relation to other participants in literary interaction

Organs for Sale Ryan Gillespie, 2020-12-07 Organs for Sale is a study of the bioethical question of how to increase human organ supply But it is also an inquiry into public moral deliberation and the relationship between economic worth and the value systems of a society Looking closely at human organ procurement debates the author offers a critique of neoliberalism in bioethics and asks what kind of society we truly want While society has shown concern over debates surrounding organ procurement a better understanding of the rhetoric of advocates and philosophical underpinnings of the debate might indeed improve our public moral deliberation in general and organ policy more specifically Examining public arguments this book uses a range of source material from medical journals to congressional hearings to newspaper op eds to provide the most up to date and thorough analysis of the topic Organs for Sale posits that deciding together on the limits of markets and on what is and ought to be for sale sheds light on the moral fibre of our society and what it needs to thrive Questioning Architectural Judgment Steven A. Moore, Barbara B. Wilson, 2013-07-24 The book shines light on the problem of judgment particularly in the realm of architectural technics and the codes that regulate it The struggle to define sustainability and thus judge architecture through such lenses is but one dimension of the contemporary problem of judgment By providing the reader with an inherently interdisciplinary study of a particular discipline architecture it brings to the topic lenses that challenge the too frequently unexamined assumptions of the discipline By situating architecture within a broader cultural field and using case studies to dissect the issues discussed the book emphasizes that it is not simply a matter of designing better more efficient or more stringent codes to guide place making but a matter of reconstructing the boundaries of the systems to be coded The authors are winners of the EDRA Place Research Award 2014 for their work on the Green Alley Demonstration Project used in the book
