Economy is stronger despite uncertainty

Despite the ongoing uncertainty around Brexit, the good news is that our economy continues to go from strength to strength.

Employment is at its highest rate since records began with almost half a million more people in work since December last year. The UK now has a higher employment rate than America, Canada, France and Italy.

the organisation. I also met a number of staff who were being trained for the next level of responsibility and the wonderful, long-serving 'guest experience manager', Carol, who makes sure customers are happy.

Nationally unemployment is now at an incredible low of 3.9 per cent, the lowest level since the 1970s, and it is even lower in the Chichester area. As of March this year, we have fewer than 1,000 people of working age who are unemployed.
