Government financial reporting manual 2010-11 Great Britain: H.M. Treasury, 2010-04-15 Known as FReM Ring binder available separately ISBN 9780115601422 Also available with binder ISBN 9780115601439 Financial Reporting Advisory Board Report for the Period April 2005 to March 2006 Financial Reporting Advisory Board, 2006-06-06 The Financial Reporting Advisory Board was established in 1996 and was given statutory footing by the Government Resources and Accounts Act 2000 It is an independent body with the remit to promote principles and standards in financial reporting across the public sector in the UK including government departments and executive agencies executive non departmental public bodies trading funds and health bodies The Board also advises the Treasury on the implementation of accounting policies specific to Whole of Government Accounts The Barnett formula Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: Select Committee on the Barnett Formula, 2009-07-17 The Barnett Formula is the mechanism used by the United Kingdom Government to allocate more than half of total public expenditure in Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland The Formula has been used for the last thirty years to determine the annual increase in allocation the increment Each year these increments are added on to the previous year's allocation the baseline to create what is now a significant block grant of funds The Formula accounted for almost 49 billion of public spending in 2007/08 Despite the political changes within the United Kingdom the Formula has continued to be used and has never been reviewed or revised The Formula was only intended to be a short term measure and should no longer be A UK Funding Commission should be established to assess relative need in the UK's regions and advise on a new method of distributing funding to reflect those needs The baseline has never been reviewed to take account of changing population patterns this means that the grant provides funds without reference to the needs of each of the countries and regions of the UK There should be a link between the grant of funds made to each of the administrations and their actual per capita funding needs The Committee's research suggests that England and Scotland have markedly lower overall needs per head of population than Wales and Northern Ireland The Committee suggest that the UK Funding Commission undertake an assessment of relative need now and in the future and that they undertake periodic reviews as well as publish annual data about the allocation of funding between the devolved administrations Public Sector Accounting and Auditing in Europe I. Brusca, E. Caperchione, S. Cohen, F. Manes Rossi, 2016-02-03 The book provides an overview of the governmental accounting status quo in Europe by analysing the public sector accounting budgeting and auditing systems in fourteen European countries IT sheds light on the challenges faced by European countries as they move towards adoption of the European Public Sector Accounting Standards EPSAS Top Pay in the Public Sector Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Public Administration Select Committee, 2009 This report calls for a Top Pay Commission to name and shame public sector organisations that pay excessive salaries to their top officials The Commission would produce principles and benchmarks to be followed by pay setters and would be able to launch investigations where these were breached PASC believes a Top Pay Commission would ensure greater coherence to the setting of top pay across the public sector PASC concludes that massive increases in private sector executive salaries over the last ten years have led to smaller but sometimes still very large increases at the top of the public sector This contagion effect has meant that the highest salaries in both sectors have increased much faster than average earnings PASC also identified a number of weaknesses with current arrangements for setting pay in the public sector These include variable levels of transparency tensions between devolved and centralised pay setting systems a perception that some public servants have been rewarded for failure and a tendency for some parts of the public sector to compete against others for a small number of experienced candidates rather than growing talent internally Some of the Committee's other key recommendations include a call for better human resource management across the public sector to ensure talent is promoted from within and failure is not rewarded recommendations that would lead to publication of salaries and bonuses across the public sector more in line with the requirements placed on listed companies and a proposal to ensure all public sector executive reward packages are drawn up either by independent bodies or remuneration committees with a majority of independent members

Annual accountability hearing with Monitor Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Health Committee, 2011-09-14 In this first annual accountability hearing with Monitor the Health Committee welcomes the strengthened role given to the hospital regulator in the approval and regulation of Foundation Trusts The Committee strongly supports the view that the standards for authorizing Foundation Trusts must not fall as a result of the Government's desire to see all remaining NHS Trusts become Foundation Trusts It welcomes the extension of Monitor's oversight powers for Foundation Trusts to 2016 that the powers will then be reviewed and the fact that Monitor's new role as set out in the Health and Social Care Bill has been more clearly defined The Committee believes Monitor has established a reputation as an effective regulator of Foundation Trusts and that it is important to safeguard that hard won reputation That means insisting on the maintenance of a rigorous approvals system It also means maintaining an effective oversight regime in what are likely to be increasingly challenging times Finally following government amendments to the Health and Social Care Bill which were tabled at Commons Report Stage it means the operation of an effective distress and failure regime for Foundation Trusts

Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,2013 2012 Accountability

Hearing with Monitor Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Health Committee,2013-03-05 This is the second annual accountability hearing with Monitor from the Health Committee The parallel roles of Monitor and CQC were criticised in the Francis report on the Mid Staffordshire Foundation Trust HC 898 session 2012 13 ISBN 9780102981469 because they created significant opportunities for confusion The Health Committee concurs and stresses that it needs to be addressed urgently to avoid the twin dangers of gaps in regulation and duplication of regulation This report concludes that the proposal to use a combination of transitional powers and licensing provisions designed to apply to all providers of NHS care to provide the framework for the long term regulation of Foundation Trusts is profoundly unsatisfactory The role of Monitor in relation to competition in the NHS remains unclear and the respective roles of Monitor and the Competition Commission in the market for health and care services need urgent clarification Monitor s positive approach towards the commissioning of integrated care pathways is welcome Monitor should use its role in setting the tariff paid for certain NHS services alongside the NHS Commissioning Board to encourage system redesign and the integration of service provision as well as to discourage cherry picking of the most economically attractive patients The establishment of a provider failure regime is welcome but a number of important elements in that regime are not yet fully developed and further progress is needed over the coming months The Royal Marsden Manual of Clinical Nursing Procedures, Student Edition Sara

Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 2008 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament Draft Local Audit Bill Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Draft Local Audit Bill ad Hoc Committee, 2013-01-17 Draft legislation intended to deliver a more efficient and transparent local audit system may not save money potentially undermines the integrity of the audit system and may fail to deliver accountability The principle of independent audit which has guided public sector audit for the last 150 years could be undermined if the bill is not amended Most witnesses criticised the proposed independent auditor panels and felt that they imposed an unnecessary additional bureaucratic burden They expressed strong support for the retention of a central procurement capacity for appointing auditors to local bodies in order to deliver best value on audit fees The legislation also has some gaping holes that pose significant risks Unless stronger safeguards are put into the legislation whistleblowers might not be able to draw attention to serious failures in local governance The Comptroller Auditor General of the National Audit Office should be named in the Bill alongside the appointed auditor as another prescribed person who may be contacted by any whistleblower. It should also have a duty to publish detailed mandatory guidance to accompany the code and to report annually to Parliament on the Code's effectiveness. Lastly, there is great concern that the draft Bill makes no provision for comprehensive like-for-like value for money comparisons which would enable informed judgements about the way local bodies spend taxpayer's money. It is essential that the Bill is re-drafted to include a systematic process for benchmarking and like-for-like comparisons between public bodies in the new regime.
