The Emotional Politics of Racism Paula Ioanide, 2015-05-20 With stop and frisk laws new immigration policies and cuts to social welfare programs majorities in the United States have increasingly supported intensified forms of punishment and marginalization against Black Latino Arab and Muslim people in the United States even as a majority of citizens claim to support colorblindness and racial equality With this book Paula Ioanide examines how emotion has prominently figured into these contemporary expressions of racial discrimination and violence How U S publics dominantly feel about crime terrorism welfare and immigration often seems to trump whatever facts and evidence say about these politicized matters Though four case studies the police brutality case of Abner Louima the exposure of torture at Abu Ghraib the demolition of New Orleans public housing units following Hurricane Katrina and a proposed municipal ordinance to deny housing to undocumented immigrants in Escondido CA Ioanide shows how racial fears are perpetuated and how these widespread fears have played a central role in justifying the expansion of our military and prison system and the ongoing divestment from social welfare But Ioanide also argues that within each of these cases there is opportunity for new mobilizations for ethical witnessing we must also popularize desires for justice and increase people's receptivity to the testimonies of the oppressed by reorganizing embodied and unconscious structures of feeling

Wholeness and Holiness in Education: An Islamic Perspective Zahra al Zeera, 2001-01-01 Critically examining the Western secular approach to formal education the author contests the value of an education system focusing solely on the intellectual and physical aspects of human development The methodological aim and structure of this approach are compared to those of Islam which Dr Al Zeera notes gives credence to the importance of spiritual and religious factors as well as scholarly ones with the overall objective of forming whole and holy human being who instead of resisting the paradoxes of life uses their interrelatedness as a means of personal and societal development One interesting factor examined within the broader framework of the study is the area of female spirituality an element which the author argues is vastly under represented in prevalent Islamic literature This study is a holistic view of knowledge and a sociological discussion adopting an unconventional approach of using the author s own personal experiences as the basis for debate and analysis We are invited to enter the world of understanding and observation to experience for ourselves an unusual approach to dialectical thinking
