Northwest University Vaal Campus Prospectus 2016:

Public-Private Partnerships in Africa Thekiso Molokwane, Muhiya Tshombe Lukamba, Alex Nduhura, Innocent Nuwagaba, 2023-12-06 In the twenty first century governments around the world began to engage the private sector with the objective of achieving public service delivery targets and the African continent has as such been experiencing transformation particularly since the introduction of public private partnerships PPP as a measure of reform and method of procurement Unfortunately there is a mixed bag of successes and challenges through this implementation of PPPs causing a gap in infrastructure leaving more than 640 million Africans without access to energy Muhiya Tshombe Lukamba Thekiso Molokwane Alex Nduhura and Innocent Nuwagaba in Public Private Partnerships in Africa Exploring Africa's Growth Potential explore ways in which the government can collaborate with the private sector in order to close these gaps The chapters analyze the implementation of PPPs and provide case studies on the use of PPPs in different African countries and industry sectors This book unearths new findings on PPPs within Africa and provides solutions that are beneficial to scholars the government and the PPP industry through the theoretical underpinning of various contemporary issues Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Economic Shocks and Globalisation Elsabé Loots, 2024-08-01 Over the 153 year period since 1870 the phenomenon of globalisation has been shaped and reshaped As we look back at the events that shaped our understanding of the process and its momentum before and after the Global Financial Crisis GFC it became clear that the process of globalisation has changed and continues to evolve which requires a deeper analysis The book answers the question of why the performance of the hyper globalisation period has not continued during the post GFC period after 2010 and what might be expected going forward Apart from the fact that the fourth globalisation wave period between 2010 to the early 2020s has been characterised by a range of global shocks that caused more volatility instability and uncertainty the major economic determinants of globalisation have also slowed markedly The outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic followed by the geopolitical uncertainty and instability all caused global contagion effects around the world with economic socio economic and geopolitical consequences and responses This book aims to analyse most of these global events and shocks and attempted to gather a deeper understanding of the present drivers of globalisation and what the major trends and shifts are geo economically socio economically and geopolitically The conclusions drawn include that globalisation remains despite the current slowbalisation an integrated process that is globally entrenched yet complex cyclical multifaceted and multiplex This book is aimed at academics in economics political sciences social sciences and may also find an audience among international policymakers and scholars at multilateral institutions such as the World Bank and the United Nations
