Deane Sharpley-Whiting, Jeffrey Williams, 2018 More comprehensive and up to date than ever before The Norton Anthology of Theory and Criticism Vincent B. Leitch, 2001 This welcome addition to the Norton anthologies binds the writings from 148 authors among them Gorgias of Leontini Plato Aristotle Horace Longinus Quintilian Dante Corneille Dryden Aphra Behn Vico Wollstonecraft Coleridge Poe Baudelaire Lukacs Heidegger Gramsci Barthes Raymond Williams Haraway Hebdige hooks Judith Butler and the most recent theorist Stuart Moulthrop The Rebirth of American Literary Theory and Criticism H. Aram Veaser, 2020-11-27 The interviewees of this volume fall into three groups the main players who brought about the rise of theory Fish Gallop Spivak Bhabha a younger group of post theorists B rub Dimock Nealon Warren the anti critique theorists Felski and new order theorists Puchner Wolfe They discuss elemental questions such as trying to grasp what was logic and what was rhetoric trying to see down the road while fog and turmoil held visibility to arm s length and trying to pick legible meanings out of the cultural blanket of deafening noise Theorists were not only good thinkers but also pioneers who were seeking profound transformations Beginning Theory Peter Barry, 2002-09-07 In this second edition of Beginning Theory the variety of approaches theorists and technical language is lucidly and expertly unraveled and explained and allows readers to develop their own ideas once first principles have been grasped Expanded and updated from the original edition first published in 1995 Peter Barry has incorporated all of the recent developments in literary theory adding two new chapters covering the emergent Eco criticism and the re emerging Narratology Reading the Bible Ethically Eric J. Douglass, 2014-09-11 All interpretive systems deal with the author Modern systems consider the text to be autonomous so that it is disconnected from the author s interests In Reading the Bible Ethically Eric Douglass reconsiders this connection His central argument is that the author is a subject who reproduces her culture and her subjectivity in the text As the author reproduces her subjectivity the text functions as the author s voice This allows Douglass to apply ethical principles to interpretation where that voice is treated as a subject for conversation and not an object for manipulation He uses this to texture the reading process so that an initial reading takes account of the author s communication while a second reading critiques that communication Law and Enjoyment Daniel Hourigan, 2015-06-05 This book advocates and develops a critical account of the relationship between law and the largely neglected issue of enjoyment Taking popular culture seriously as a lived and meaningful basis for a wider understanding of law beyond the strictures of legal institutions and professional practices it takes up a range of case studies from film and literature in order to consider how law is iterated through enjoyment and how enjoyment embodies law Drawing on psychoanalytic theory this book addresses issues such as the forced choice to enjoy the law the biopolitics of tyranny the enjoyment of law s contingency the trauma of the law s symbolic codification of pleasure and the futuristic vision of law s transgression In so doing it forges an important case for acknowledging and analyzing the complex relationship between power and pleasure in law one that will be of considerable interest to legal theorists as well as those with interests in the intersection of psychoanalytic and cultural theory The adaptation An emphasis on adaptation as practice establishes methods of investigation that move beyond a purely comparative case study model The Routledge Companion to Adaptation celebrates the complexity and diversity of adaptation studies mapping the field across genres and disciplines Global Indigenous Horror Naomi Simone Borwein, 2025-04-15 Contributions by Katrin Althans Jayson Althofer Naomi Simone Borwein Persephone Braham Krista Collier Jarvis Shane Hawk Jade Jenkinson June Scudeler and Sabrina Zacharias Global Indigenous Horror is a collection of essays that positions Indigenous Horror as more than just a genre but as a narrative space where the spectral and social converge where the uncanny becomes a critique and the monstrous mirrors the human While contentions swirl around the genre category this exploratory anthology is the first critical edited collection dedicated solely to ways of theorizing and analyzing Indigenous Horror literature The essays curated by scholar Naomi Simone Borwein ask readers to consider what Global Indigenous Horror is and to whom The volume opens with a preface by international bestselling horror writer Shane Hawk enrolled Cheyenne Arapaho Hidatsa and Potawatomi descent followed by an overview of Global Indigenous Horror trends aesthetics and approaches The carefully selected contributions explore Indigenous Horror literature and mixed media narratives worldwide unraveling the intricate dynamics between the local and global traditional and contemporary and human and monstrous Contributor chapters are grouped not by geographical or cultural variation but along a spectrum from a strong emphasis on ways of knowing to a critical inspection of Horror through Indigenous Gothic aesthetics across cultural boundaries and against and beyond nation states Theory of Racelessness Sheena Michele Mason, 2022-05-27 This book presents a skeptical eliminativist philosophy of race and the theory of racelessness a methodological and pedagogical framework for analyzing race and racism It explores the history of skeptical eliminativism and constructionist eliminativism within the history of African American philosophy and literary studies and its consistent connection with movements for civil rights Sheena M Mason considers how current anti racist efforts reflect naturalist conservationist and constructionist reconstructionist philosophies of race that prevent more people from fully confronting the problem of racism not race thereby enabling racism to persist She then offers a three part solution for how scholars and people aspiring toward anti racism can avoid unintentionally upholding racism using literary studies as a case study to show how race often translates into racism itself The theory of racelessness helps more people undo racism by undoing the belief in race The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism Mary K. Holland, 2020-06-11 Literature has never looked weirder full of images colors gadgets and footnotes and violating established norms of character plot and narrative structure Yet over the last 30 years critics have coined more than 20 new realisms in their attempts to describe it What makes this decidedly unorthodox literature realistic And if it is then what does realism mean anymore Examining literature by dozens of writers and over a century of theory and criticism about realism The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism sorts through the current critical confusion to illustrate how our ideas about what is real and how best to depict it have changed dramatically especially in recent years Along the way Mary K Holland guides the reader on a lively tour through the landscape of contemporary literary studies taking in metafiction ideology posthumanism postmodernism and poststructuralism with forays into quantum mechanics new materialism and Buddhism as well to give us entirely new ways of viewing how humans use language to make sense of and to make the world
