Nashua Christopher Murphy, 2013-09 Located just north of Boston Nashua New Hampshire is known as a quiet city until a series of violent murders makes front page news just before Memorial Day weekend The brutal killings leave citizens terrified and the NH State Police respond by bringing in an experienced investigator Detective Sergeant John Osborne is an abrasive but competent state trooper from the major crimes unit Osborne immediately butts heads with Detective David Boyle his liaison to the Nashua police department Both men begin investigating the grisly murders which seemingly happened with absolutely no apparent connection except for the killer placing a white pillowcase over the victim's head and tying the end of it off in a knot around the neck As if the killer didn't want to see the victim's face the skull is pummeled rendering them unrecognizable Nothing is as it seems as both investigators clash every step of the way Their own personal dislike and inter departmental hostility for each other threatens to jeopardize the investigation Ironically both of them might actually be closer to the truth than they realize upon learning of an eerily similar crime committed in Maryland the year before In fact the killer has already decided that one of them must become the next victim
